Convening of Chicago-area Student Leaders in Human Rights

Wednesday, October 12 from 6:30pm to 8:30pm
DePaul University Downtown Campus
Lewis Center (Room 341), 25 East Jackson, Chicago, IL

The Midwest Coalition for Human Rights, DePaul University International Human Rights Law Institute, Amnesty International USA, and the University of Chicago Human Rights Program invite you to join a convening of student leaders to discuss the development of a Chicago-area student human rights network. We are looking for your input and leadership to make this network a success.

Please RSVP to Claire Leslie by Wednesday, October 5 at cleslie@MidwestHumanRights.org or 612-624-8543

Dinner will be provided

Why a student human rights network?

- To empower students to create positive change in their communities
- To enable collaborative campaigns and cross-campus alliances
- To provide student activists with critical support including opportunities for networking and practical skill development
- To promote the international human rights framework recognizing the inherent human dignity of all
