In anticipation of the NATO Summit coming this May to Chicago, John Mearsheimer will discuss NATO's history and its relevance to the U.S. and the world. John J. Mearsheimer is the R. Wendell Harrison Distinguished Service Professor of Political Science and the co-director of the Program on International Security Policy at the University of Chicago. His most recent book is Why Leaders Lie: The Truth about Lying in International Politics (2011).

Sponsored by the University Community Service Center (UCSC), the Human Rights Program and the College. Light refreshments provided. Questions or to RSVP, please email chicagostudies.ucsc@uchicago.edu.