

Inner Journey Productions presents:

Spiritual Reflections From Combat: The Bill Schiebler Story

- One hour radio documentary about Bill Schiebler – Army Ranger and decorated veteran sharing inspiring stories from his remarkable combat experiences in Viet Nam during 1965-66

Program Description

Bill Schiebler, 24, was a first lieutenant sent to fight in the central highlands of Viet Nam with the First Air Cavalry Division. After 5 months of ferocious combat, Schiebler was one of just four soldiers left from the 186 men who were part of his original rifle company. Schiebler was wounded over 10 times, receiving the Bronze Star for Valor and 4 purple hearts.

Schiebler recalls:

- Risking his life calming down a soldier in his platoon who went berserk shooting up their tent
- Rescuing a fellow officer stranded behind enemy lines
- Carrying an enemy soldier on his back miles to camp – who surprisingly becomes an important intelligence source

Nat'l Archives

- Adding a rebellious black soldier to his platoon who becomes a hero to Schiebler and his men – ultimately transforming his attitude towards race relations

- Facing friendly fire as he's forced to return to base camp at night to save his men
- Struggling with flashbacks ultimately leading to a healing experience of forgiveness

Endorsements

- Manny Levy – Chief, Radio Division, American Forces Network

“I admire your ability to translate difficult military subjects into riveting and compelling stories. Despite the gravity of the subject matter, somehow the overall effect ends up being uplifting.”

- Margo Melnicove – NPR's Liaison with Independent Producers

“ I was listening on my car CD player and I hated to stop listening when I was done driving. Bill Schiebler is an amazing storyteller with amazing stories to tell.”
