Each program is 59 minutes long (unless noted otherwise). The programs are newscast compatible, and include two 90 second floating ID breaks.

You may select either the 29 or 59 minute version for the same price. Please note that the 59 minute version is based on the NPR hour clock with a one minute tease followed by a five minute news break at the top. There are also ninety-second floating breaks at approximately the 20 and 40 minute marks.
