

NEW LETTERS ON THE AIR PRESENTS

Life Distilled:

Four Decades of U.S. Poet Laureates

“Poetry can be something like sheet lightning
—sudden illuminations, electricity in the air—

New Letters’ series is a brilliant way of capturing some of that energy of poetry in American culture.”

—Robert Hass, U.S. Poet Laureate (1995-1997)

- ⚡ Five one-hour programs with 16 U.S. Poet Laureates
- ⚡ Ideal for National Poetry Month in April or anytime
- ⚡ Produced with optional breaks for news and IDs
- ⚡ Available on www.prx.org

Support for Life Distilled: Four Decades of U.S. Poet Laureates is provided by the PRX and the Station Resource Group.

For more information: www.newletters.org or toll-free (888) 548-2477.

New Letters on the Air is produced at the University of Missouri-Kansas City.