

To whom it may concern,

I have known David Slaughter for a little over four years. During this time frame, I have spent time with him both on and off the job. Our families have gotten together and spent quality time away from the job setting. I attended the Katrina relief with Dave at my side assisting with the Refugees stranded in New Orleans.

I have also witnessed Dave participate in office training throughout the course of the previous four years. He has always been a very devoted and hard working employee. He takes his physical fitness and training very serious. I have always known Dave to be a very honest and approachable person. He would be the last person I would expect to be compromised.

Brvant Hurks

Re:

I am writing this letter in reference to my fellow colleague Mr. David Slaughter. I have known Dave since my first arriving in the Cincinnati area for employment around August 2002. He and I have had a working relationship since that time. Dave has been a very professional colleague. He is very professional in his appearance and attitude. He shows up to work in a timely manner and handles any issues that arise proficiently. His character around the office is one of example. Dave carries himself in such a polite manner in which his co-workers are comfortable conversing and working with him. He is very approachable and is looking to learn new things.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my thoughts.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern,

My name is Brian D. Koenes and I have worked with Mr. Slaughter as a Federal Officer for the last 4.5-5 years. During this time I have had contact with Mr. Slaughter on several occasions. The contacts have been work related, as well as, personal. Over the last 4.5-5 years I have found Mr. Slaughter to be a very professional and polite individual. My family (wife and children) had dinner with Mr. Slaughter's family and at no time would I ever give it a second thought about him watching my children or assisting in my family affairs.

I believe that the reported actions of Mr. Slaughter to be off base. I enjoyed working with Mr. Slaughter and would do so again without hesitation.

Should there be a need for further correspondence, please feel free to contact me. Thank you for your time

MEMORANDUM

TO: Whom It May Concern
FROM: James R. Phillips
SUBJECT: David Slaughter

The purpose of this memorandum is to detail my interaction professionally and personally with David Slaughter. I met 'Dave' when I relocated to Cincinnati in September 2002. Professionally, I have worked and trained with Dave on numerous occasions. Dave's demeanor and professionalism reflect favorably on the field office as well as the agency as a whole. An example of Dave's commitment to the agency was his unyielding work ethic and professionalism when deployed to assist with the Hurricane Katrina Relief Effort in Louisiana. Dave made personal sacrifices to ensure the safety and welfare of others during this deployment.

Personally, I began interacting with Dave on a personal level a couple of years ago. On several occasions, Dave and his wife invited my family and I over to their house for cookouts, holiday get togethers, etc. Dave and his wife have purchased gifts for my daughter during holidays/birthdays, as well as celebrating my wife's birthday party. Dave is very personable and well respected by his neighbors as well as his peers.

Honorable Judge,

My name is Mark Smith and I have known David Slaughter for almost five years. He and I are not only co-workers, but we are also friends and neighbors. My wife and I socialize with David and his wife Tami regularly. David has always conducted himself well in our presence. David is also viewed as an outstanding employee in our agency. David received a raise his first year of eligibility, and only 25% of our office received this increase in pay. The fact that he received this increase in pay shows that he is viewed as an outstanding employee. In the years that I have known David, I have viewed David as a man of impeccable character personally and a man who conducts himself professionally in the work place.

Respectfully,

John M. Smith

Honorable Judge,

My name is Matt Myles. I have been a police officer at both the state and federal levels for over 10 years combined. I have been a friend and co-worker to David Slaughter and his wife Tami for over 4 years. Our families have gathered at several social events on a regular basis. There has never been a time where David has not conducted himself in a reasonable and/or professional manner in our presence.

Furthermore, it is my opinion that David was viewed as an outstanding employee in our agency. David has always set the example. He rarely called in sick, always trained hard and helped others when in need. I believe this is why David received a pay raise his first year of eligibility. This alone was quite an achievement because this raise only went to the top 25% of the entire office.

Respectfully submitted,

Matthew Myles
