

INTO PRAYER

What is one way that others could pray for you this week? Who can you share this with?

If you are in a Community Group, write down how you can pray for others in the group. (If not, ask a friend how you can pray for them.)

WEEKLY TAKE-HOME Bible Study

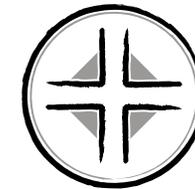

WEEK OF FEB 4

HOW THIS WORKS

This Bible study is a weekly tool intended to help you reflect on what God says in the Bible.

We invite you to take a few unhurried moments this week to consider the included passages, answer a few questions (inside), and note how these verses lead you to pray (back).

We hope you enjoy drawing near to God through His Word (Hebrews 11:6) while also preparing for Community Group.

REJOICE, PRAY, GIVE THANKS

1 THESSALONIANS 5:16–18

Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.

PSALM 103:8–13

The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.

1 PETER 5:6–7

Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you.

ROMANS 8:28

And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose.

2 CORINTHIANS 4:16–18

So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.
