

PARDON

TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, in August of 1994, in the Criminal Court for Rutherford County, Tennessee, Shantie Martin was convicted of one count of the sale of cocaine (case no. 29861); and in February of 1998, in the Criminal Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, Ms. Martin was convicted of one count of resisting arrest (case no. 97-D-249Z); and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's constitution and statutory law authorize the governor to grant executive clemency, including the power to issue pardons; and

WHEREAS, this case appears to me to be a proper one for the exercise of executive elemency because Ms. Martin has demonstrated exemplary citizenship since the completion of her sentences, as well as a compelling reason for a pardon.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Article III, Section 6, of the Tennessee Constitution and by the laws of the State of Tennessee, do hereby grant a pardon in favor of Ms. Martin, pardoning her for her convictions listed above.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at Nashville, Tennessee, on this 20th day of December, 2024.
