

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

QUESTION 1

What comes to mind when you hear the word “racism”? How might your answer to this question reveal your own biases?

QUESTION 2

Given how divisive the issue of race is, why can't the church simply ignore it and preach the gospel? What is the relationship between the gospel and race and other issues of justice?

QUESTION 3

What are some more subtle ways you've seen racism in your own community? What about in your own life?

QUESTION 4

What's wrong with responding to racism simply by claiming that some people need to take more responsibility for their actions?

QUESTION 5

In terms of the issue of race, what are some practical ways you can grow in terms of how you think, speak, and act in ways that are just (as defined by Scripture)? Make a list.