

Become a volunteer management SUPERSTAR

Tuesday, October 20

1:30 – 4:30 p.m.

Rainbows' Kids' Point

3223 North Oliver Avenue, Wichita

Who Should Attend? Anyone who works with volunteers in not-for-profits, churches or civic groups will walk away with helpful tips, best practices and new practical ideas. Those new to the field as well as veterans looking for new tips and tricks.

Presenter: Chelsea Redger currently serves as the Assistant Director of Student Involvement at Wichita State University. Chelsea has worked with volunteer recruitment and retention on a variety of campus and communities. She has also worked with Alternative Break programs both domestically and internationally, leadership development and civic leadership programs.

No cost
Limited space
Reservations required

Topics Include:

- Recruitment
- Identifying needs
- Screening and background checks
- Matching needs to volunteer skills
- Engaging and retaining
- Appreciation options
- Tracking and reporting

Reserve your seat: Jo Truong, jtruong@rui.org or 316.558.3422

Hosted by:

RAINBOWS
bringing potential to life

Made possible by a mini grant through:

KANSAS VOLUNTEER COMMISSION
SERVE • ENGAGE • EMPOWER