Aly Aguirre@All: what is Gregory Chen email?

You@All: We'll provide that information on our website after the webinar!

Lauren Heidbrink@All: Hi Greg, thank you for this useful information. I work on at a large public university which I presume is considered public space since it belongs to the state. What would be an example of private space at a public institution?

Lauren Heidbrink@You: Lauryl, can you mute everyone?

Regina@All: Do you recommend using language around 4th amendment rather than sanctuary for campuses?

Lauren Heidbrink@You: we need to move to Nancy now

Nora Haenn@All: GOV.ed says of FERPA "Schools may disclose, without consent, "directory" information such as a student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, honors and awards, and dates of attendance owever, schools must tell parents and eligible students about directory information and allow parents and eligible students a reasonable amount of time to request that the school not disclose directory information about them. . "

whitney@All: greg, thank you so much!
