About AAA
The American Anthropological Association is the world’s largest association for professional anthropologists, with more than 10,000 members. Based in Washington, D.C., the Association was founded in 1902, and covers all four main fields of anthropology (cultural anthropology, biological/physical anthropology, archaeology, applied anthropology, and linguistic anthropology).

“As a member, I received mentorship from senior anthropologists and practitioners.”

“With my membership, I presented my research and received valuable feedback.”
