The special blog entitled "Engagement" on our new website features posts by environmental anthropologists involved in engaged anthropology.

Our Small Grants promote collaborative projects involving anthropologists and community engagement.

Communications:

Status and use of Section internal communications such as a website, list serve, or newsletter (if applicable): Please list internal communication tools you use and what they are used for.

We launched a new website at http://www.aanet.org/sections/ae/. Aside from providing the usual information about section activities, it has a special blog entitled "Engagement" with posts by environmental anthropologists involved in engaged anthropology. It also has cover stories concerning issues of broad interest (such as climate change) and links to recent research in the field.

We also launched a facebook page at http://www.facebook.com/pages/Anthropology-and-Environment-Society/127205994087700. It currently has 1350 followers.

We maintain a listserve on environmental anthropology with 1600 readers.

Governance:

Changes in bylaws or governance structure.

The section name was changed from "Anthropology and Environment" to "Anthropology and Environment Society."

Initiatives:

What Initiatives does your Section have underway or planned for the coming year: membership, publication annual meeting, mentorship, other?

AES continues to be engaged with the Climate Change task force it proposed 3 years ago. AES has also started a task force on promoting ethical food at AAA meetings.

Ask AAA:

Please tell us what your chief concerns and issues are, especially if they are not previously noted.
