(April 18, 1018)—Ron Baerg, of Seminole, FL USA, is now a partner at Crisis Prevention and Recovery LLC (DBA SoftwareCPR ®) a full service medical device compliance and premarket submissions consultancy. Ron has over twenty three years of experience in medical device software development and management. His experience has been primarily focused on large, complex medical device systems with multiple computing systems containing all safety classes of software. His training has included risk management, software validation, standards conformance such as 62304, and was a recipient of the Baxter Technical Award.

Ron expands the company's SoftwareCPR ® capabilities and remediation services. His full CV is on the credentials page of www.softwarecpr.com .

For more information

Call: 781-721-2921
Website: www.softwarecprcom