Accessibility Ratings

The following resources help take the guesswork out of traveling or going out on the town for people with disabilities. They help one find the accessibility ratings of various hotels, restaurants, movie theaters, public venues, transportation options, etc. A few help you find accessible venues but don’t rate them.

www.AbleRoad.com
Able Road
This app and website is a community resource for reviews of thousands of restaurants, clubs, groceries, shops, etc.

http://www.axsmap.com/
AXS Map
People can enter ratings on the accessibility of various public places like hotels, restaurants, etc.

www.brettapproved.com
Brett Approved
Phone: 602-405-9103
Email: brett@brettapproved.com
Accessibility reviews of hotels, restaurants and venues are available on Brett Approved.

http://live.handistrong.com/
HandiStrong
HandiStrong doesn’t rate them but helps one find accessible restaurants, gyms, etc.

www.planat.com
Planat
An innovation from the Rick Hansen Foundation, Planat permits accessibility ratings in three areas--mobility, sight and hearing.

Sage Traveling: The European Disabled Experts
Sage offers an accessibility rating system for tourist attractions in Europe.

http://trekkable.co/
Trekkable
Trekkable rates the accessibility of hotels for people with mobility limitations.

http://wheelchairjimmy.com/default.asp
Wheelchair Jimmy
A travel website for researching how well hotels, restaurants, city attractions, cruise lines and local transportation services satisfy the accessibility and usability needs of travelers in wheelchairs.

Medical Disclaimer
The information contained in this message is presented for the purpose of educating and informing you about paralysis and its effects. Nothing contained in this message should be construed nor is intended to be used for medical diagnosis or treatment. It should not be used in place of the advice of your physician or other qualified health care provider. Should you have any health care related questions, please call or see your physician or other qualified health care provider promptly. Always consult with your physician or other qualified health care provider before embarking on a new treatment, diet or fitness program. You should never disregard medical advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read in this message.

This project was supported, in part by grant number 90PR3002, from the U.S. Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, D.C. 20201. Grantees undertaking projects under government sponsorship are encouraged to express freely their findings and conclusions. Points of view or opinions do not, therefore, necessarily represent official Administration for Community Living policy.