Physiatrists

Physiatrists are physicians who specialize in physical medicine and rehabilitation. They may specialize in certain areas such as pediatrics, spinal cord medicine, and sports medicine. To find out more, please contact the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

http://www.aapmr.org
American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (AAPMR)
9700 West Bryn Mawr Ave, Ste 200
Rosemont, IL 60018-5701
Phone: 847-737-6000
Email: info@aapmr.org
The patients & family section of AAPMR’s website includes information on physiatrists and common disorders treated by physiatrists, as well as a searchable database of physiatrists.

http://www.aapmr.org/patients/aboutpmr/Pages/physiatrist.aspx AAPMR: What is a Physiatrist?

http://www.aapmr.org/patients/findphysician/Pages/default.aspx
AAPMR: Find a Physiatrist
Click on your state to find a physiatrist in your area

http://www.makoa.org/nscia/fact11.html
National Spinal Cord Injury Association’s Fact Sheet “What is a Physiatrist?”

http://www.physiatry.org/
Association of Academic Physiatrists (AAP)
7250 Parkway Drive, Suite 130
Hanover, MD 21076
Phone: 410-712-7120
AAP is a national organization of physiatrists who are affiliated with medical schools. The Association works to promote the advancement of teaching and research in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation within an academic environment.

The information contained in this message is presented for the purpose of educating and informing you about paralysis and its effects. Nothing contained in this message should be construed nor is intended to be used for medical diagnosis or treatment. It should not be used in place of the advice of your physician or other qualified health care provider. Should you have any health care related questions, please call or see your physician or other qualified health care provider promptly. Always consult with your physician or other qualified health care provider before embarking on a new treatment, diet or fitness program. You should never disregard medical advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read in this message.

This project was supported, in part by grant number 90PR3002, from the U.S. Administration for Community Living, Department of Health and Human Services, Washington, D.C. 20201. Grantees undertaking projects under government sponsorships are encouraged to express freely their findings and conclusions. Points of view or opinions do not, therefore, necessarily represent official Administration for Community Living policy.