

Talking through the message during the week helps you turn what God is saying to you into action steps. These talking points, questions, and scriptures are designed to help you take the next step. If you're leading a group through this guide, don't feel like you have to answer every question. Pick out those questions that will stir up conversation and action among your group.

- What's one of the most miraculous things you've ever seen or heard about?

With your Bible or YouVersion, read Acts 4:23-37.

- How would you describe the way you typically pray? In what ways do your prayers reflect what you believe about God?

- When was the last time you were amazed by the power of prayer? How did that experience affect your relationship with God?
- Why do you think prayers become bolder when they are prayed together in a group?
- What's keeping you from changing your selfish and small prayers into bold prayers?
- What bold prayers do you need to start praying today?
- Peter and John's prayers led to bold results. What bold results would you like to see come from your bold prayers?
- What impact do you think it would have on your church if everyone began praying bold prayers?
- In what ways have you seen the power of bold prayers build your faith in Christ?

NEXT STEPS

Here are some specific things you can do this week that will help you start praying bold prayers.

Stop praying selfish and small prayers this week and begin to pray bold prayers. Start by picking two or three bold things to pray for. Follow the example in Acts 4 by praying for boldness in your life and in the lives of others. If you or someone you know has a great need, pray that God will work a miracle in that situation. Consider sharing your bold prayer requests with others and ask them to pray your bold prayers with you.

The Book of Acts is full of examples of amazing boldness as the first church began the task of advancing Christ's kingdom into all nations. During the Bold series, read the Acts YouVersion reading plan at <http://www.youversion.com/reading-plans/acts>. As you read, be intentional about finding examples of bold living that you can follow in your own life.
