"When All Is Said And Done"

Today let's take the opportunity to reflect on how consistent we are living our Christian Life. Is our example of a Christian Life the same in front of our children, friends, co-workers, and church family? The song below pretty much sums it up.

When the music fades into the past
 When my days of life are through
 What will be remembered of where I've come
 When all is said and done

Will they say I loved my family
 That I was a faithful friend
 That I lived to tell of God's on Son
 When all is said and done

Oh how I long to see the hour
 When I would hear that trumpet sound
 And rise to see my Savior's face
 See Him smile and say "Well Done"

You can forget my name and the songs I've sung
 Every rhyme and every tune
 But remember the truth of Jesus' Love
 When all is said and done

For the most part we don't like thinking about death. But it is a reality for all of us. Today we will explore 4 simple questions focused around "When All Is Said And Done"....

What will our children say?
 What will our friends say?
 What will our co-workers say?
 What will our church family say?

Sick

Alvin & Jackie Poss are now at home.

Jan Dixon had eye surgery.

Eddie Maxwell had knee surgery.

Linda Rekart is recovering from foot surgery.

Stephen Speake is recovering from foot surgery.

Paul Anthony, brother-in-law to Linda Rekart, has severe dementia and will soon need constant attention. Her sister, Lana, is looking for places and ways for help and is in need of prayers.

Bonnie, daughter of Earl Smith, has a spot on her liver.

Brian Ogletree, brother-in-law to Nicholas Wright, had his first surgery and the cancerous tumor was removed and had not spread. He will have a colon re-section to remove a large mass. They are unsure if it is cancer.

Chad Belew, father to Houston and Hannah and also cousin to Todd Springer, is on a ventilator in Vanderbilt.

Lisa Roberts, Ruthie Whitley, Rodney Wright, and Will Wright, relatives of Millie Goode, are having health problems.
