As a kid, I remember being told that the Christian life was one of JOY. I would notice that people who were faithful Christians were consistently happier and more satisfied than other people I happened to be around. When I was younger, it was explained that was because they lived their lives according to the following acrostic:

J - Jesus first

O - Others second

Y - Yourself third

Living the Christian life brings out the best in people. The humility shown to us in the example of Christ gives us a proper outlook on life and how to deal with people. That humility is not thinking of yourself as worthless, but rather having a proper view of yourself in the view of your Creator. Therefore, it is important that we examine ourselves to be sure we are living lives that are approved by God, a workman who does not need to be ashamed. (2 Timothy 2:15) As we study this morning and this evening, let us all take that first step of self-evaluation in order that we may have the life of joy promised by our Lord.

Grocery Giveaway and Angel Tree

Forms are available of the families that came last Saturday to help them with their needs for Christmas. Those who adopt a family will be delivering the gifts to their respective family, therefore you will need to make contact to work out the details on the best way to deliver the items. For those that want to donate money, please give that to the elders and that money will be used to purchase items for these families. Questions? Please see one of the elders.

Lads to Leaders

A sign-up sheet is in the main foyer for those that are staying overnight at the convention. Please sign up by December 13 so reservations can be made.

Benefit

A benefit will be held for Ronnie Thigpen (cancer patient) December 5 beginning at 11:00 a.m. at Grassy Park in Lexington. He is a friend to Marc Peck.
