

PENSIVE, DOUBTING, FEARFUL HEART

Words by John Newton
Music by Justin Smith

1. Pen - sive doubt - ing, fear - ful heart hear what
2. "Fear thou not, nor be a - shamed, all thy
3. "For a mo - ment I with - drew, and my
4. "When my peace - ful bow ap - pears, paint - ed
5. "Thou af - flic - ted, tem - pest - tossed, com - fort -

Christ the Sav - ior says; ev - 'ry word should joy im - part, sor - rows soon shall end I who heav'n and earth have framed, heart was filled with pain; but my mer - cies I'll re - new,
on the wa - t'ry cloud; 'tis to dis - si - pate thy fears, less a - while thou art, do not think thou canst be lost,

Change thy mourn - ing in - to praise: yes He am thy hus - band and thy friend. I the thou shalt soon re - joice a - gain: though I lest the earth shall be o'er - flowed: 'tis an thou art grav - en on my heart all thy speaks and speaks to thee, may he help thee to be - lieve High and Ho - ly One, Is - rael's God by all a - dored; scorn to hide my face, ver - y soon my wrath shall cease;

em - blem to of grace, of my cov - 'nant love a sign; walls I will re - pair, thou shalt be re - built a - new;

12 F# G#m

then thou pre - sent - ly wilt see, thou hast as thy Sav - ior will be known, Thy Re - 'tis but for a mo - ment's space, end - ing though the moun - tains leave their place, thou shalt and in thee it shall ap - pear, what a

15 E F# B

lit - tle cause to grieve.
 deem - er and thy Lord."
 in e - ter - nal peace."
 be for - e - ver mine."
 God of love can do."