

A Prayer For The Broken Hearted

Words and Music by Chelsey Scott

Based on a prayer from

"The Valley of Vision"

Arranged by Joel Littlepage

Lightly Swing

D

1. No day in my life has passed that has-n't proved me

5 D

1. No day in my life has passed that has-n't proved me

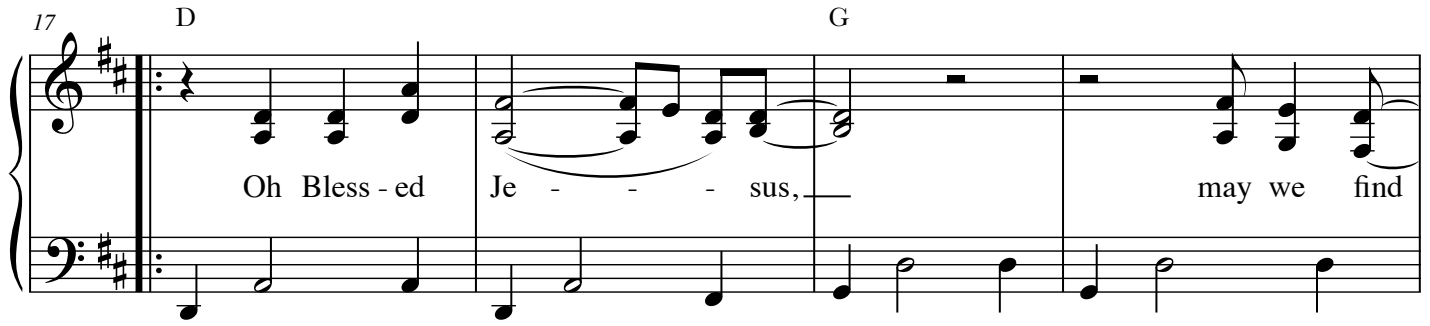

9 G D

— guilt-y; — Prayers are ut-tered too fast

13 G

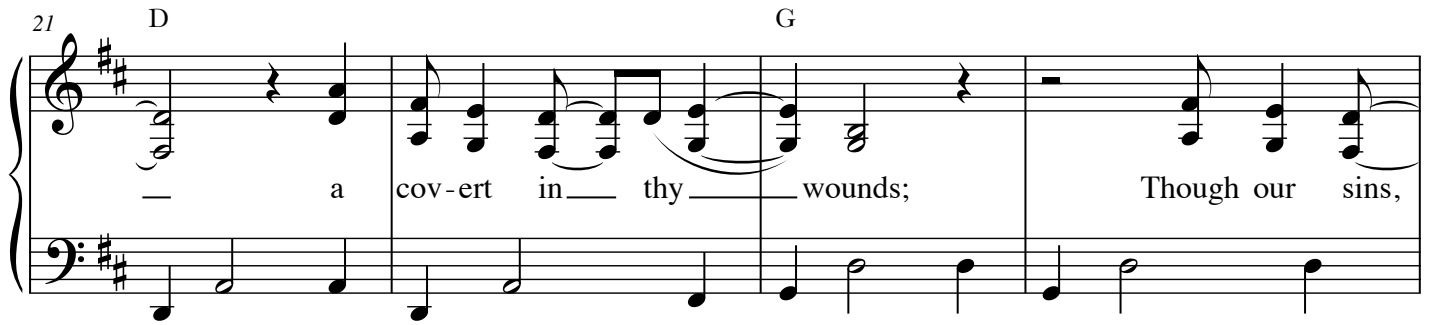

from a heart that's cold and emp-ty.

17 D G

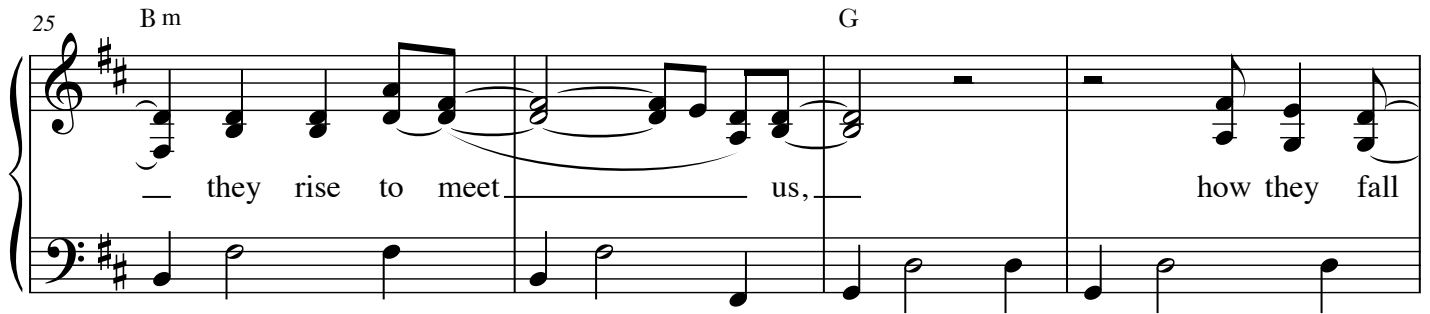

Oh Bless - ed Je - - - sus, may we find

21 D G

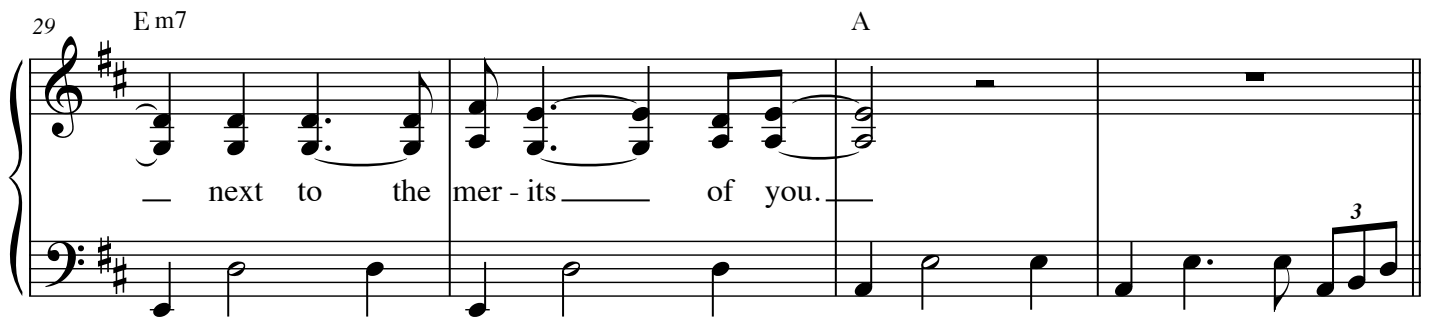

a cov-ert in thy wounds; Though our sins,

25 B m G

they rise to meet us, how they fall

29 E m7 A

next to the mer - its of you.

33 D

2.All in me calls for this, it calls for my re -

37 G D

- jec-tion; This heav-y un-right-eous-ness,

41 G

oh is there no pro-tec-tion?

45 G D6

My best ser-vic-es are rags,

49 F#m B m G

my best deeds are filth-y. Oh

53 D 2.

3. Grant me hear thy shor-ing voice, that in thy wounds is

57 G D

— par-don; Grant me see thy will - ing choice

61 G

to make my hard heart soft-ened.

65 G D6

Keep the bro - ken - heart - ed sure,

69 F#m B m G

Cling-ing to thy cross, our cure. Oh,

73 D G

Oh Bless ed Je - sus, may we find

77 D G

a cov-ert in thy wounds; Though our sins,

81 B m G

they rise to meet us, how they fall

85 E m7 A

next to the mer-its of you. Though our sins

89 B m G

they rise to meet us, how they fall

93 E m7 A D

next to the mer-its of you.