SUNSHINE HEALTH INTRODUCES NEW DENTAL HEALTH PLAN, DENTAL HEALTH & WELLNESS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUNRISE, FL (January, 2015) — Sunshine Health, a wholly owned subsidiary of Centene Corporation, announced Dental Health & Wellness as its new dental benefits manager beginning January 1, 2015. Dental Health & Wellness, one of Centene’s specialized health solutions companies, partnered with Sunshine Health to administer dental benefits for more than 410,000 Medicaid members in Florida.

“At Sunshine Health we believe in a holistic approach to healthcare, as we know quality dental care is beneficial to a person’s overall health,” said Chris Paterson, CEO, Sunshine Health. “It is important to us to ensure that our members receive preventative dental services in conjunction with their routine physical exams.”

“Preventative routine dental care is critical to maintaining a person’s overall health,” said Scott Laihinen, Plan President and CEO, Dental Health & Wellness. “Through our partnership with Sunshine Health, we demonstrate our commitment to providing Medicaid recipients with access to quality dental services, especially children.”

Dental Health & Wellness has established robust dental provider and specialty provider networks to ensure a smooth transition for Sunshine Health members statewide. Members whose current dental providers are not participating in the Dental Health & Wellness network may continue seeing their provider without disruption throughout the 90-day continuity of care period. Providers interested in joining the Dental Health & Wellness network can sign up at <https://providers.dentalhw.com/> by entering code FL.
