SUNSHINE HEALTH NAMES NEW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUNRISE, FL (October 22, 2015) — Sunshine Health, a wholly owned subsidiary of Centene Corporation, is pleased to announce the appointment of Nathan Landsbaum to Chief Operating Officer, effective immediately. Landsbaum joined Sunshine Health in 2010 and previously held the role of Senior Vice President of Finance.

"Sunshine Health is committed to hiring company leaders who will enhance our ability to serve our members and providers here in Florida," said Chris Paterson, CEO of Sunshine Health. "In his new role as Chief Operating Officer, Nathan will help ensure that Sunshine Health continues to deliver responsive service to our members, providers, and to our state partner as we continue to grow in Florida."

Landsbaum, originally from St. Louis joined Centene Corporation in August 2005 as a member of the Corporate Development Department. He held several leadership roles in that department, and in 2009, became the Senior Director of Market Development. Prior to joining Centene Corporation, Landsbaum held various roles at Bank of America.

"It is an honor to be selected to serve in this capacity at Sunshine Health," said Landsbaum. "I look forward to working with the team to further enhance our operations statewide, ensuring quality services are available to our members and that strong relationships are maintained with our providers."
