Library Project Planned

Committees Appointed

MEDIA — Plans to complete and modernize a section of the Media-Sperdy Freeway and Library have been announced by the library's trustees. The project calls for modernization of the big new room in the old section of the library.

Chairmen of standing committees of the library have been appointed for the year. They are Joseph Grubb, chairman of finance; Theodore Kuder, maintenance; Elizabeth Taylor, book selection; Eldon Lindsey, personnel; Vera Robinson, volunteers; David Barnaby, programs.

Media Rotary Club has been selected to sponsor the Nov. 9 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Media Junior High School Auditorium to benefit the library.

Advanced Swimming Scheduled

Fall and winter classes for advanced swimmers at Swarthmore College Pool have been announced by the American Red Cross.

The classes are designed to train life guards for the Red Cross Swimming Program in western Delaware County next summer.

All participants must be 14 or older for a swimmer's course and two Junior Life Saving Classes. Applicants for two senior life saving courses must be 18 or older.

The swimmers class starts Oct. 9; the life saving classes, Nov. 28.

Bogus Bills

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The U.S. Treasury Department and the FBI said counterfeit $20 bills turned up at the U.S. Penitentiary here. Warden Otto U. Mackwell said he did not think any of the bogus money had left the prison. The warden said the prison press may have been involved in the money-making scheme.

CONSTRUCTION — Work is progressing on Media Fire Company's new fire house at Front and N. Jackson Sts. When completed the building will be a two story, red brick colonial designed structure. It will cost about $200,000 and is expected to be completed early next year.

Fellowship House Schedules Forums

MEDIA — The public educational forum series sponsored by Media Fellowship House is to start at noon Friday following luncheon.

Executive Director Robert L. Woodson said the luncheon forums for fall and winter will be every second Friday and on alternate Wednesdays at 8 p.m. Theme of the luncheons will be "Students Speak Out" and this Friday, four Chester High School students will discuss Chester schools.

At 8 p.m. Wednesday Vincent Deming, director of the suburban support phase of the Friends Chester Project and chairman of People Urging Racial Justice (PURJ), will speak on organizing efforts to combat racism in Delaware County. Also a film "The New Voices of Watts," will be shown.

Road Safety

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The federal government is doubling its aid for highway safety programs in New York State, the state motor vehicle commissioner says.

Vincent L. Todani said the government authorized up to $1,688,700 for such programs during the current fiscal year, compared with the $2,203,000 received in the last fiscal year ending June 30.

Algae Blamed

EDISON, N.J. (AP) — A mysterious illness that took the lives of at least 30 ducks in 18 days at the Roosevelt Park pond was traced to eating algae on the bottom of the stagnant pool. Officials said the algae apparently was giving the ducks food poisoning. They said the bottom would be cleaned.
