Upland Methodist Gets New Minister

UPLAND — A young man who spent a part of his boyhood years in this community as a minister of a local church.

Rev. Wesley K. Meixell, 31, is the new minister of the 66-year old United Methodist Church.

A native of Philadelphia, he is the son of the late Rev. Delray C. Meixell, who served as minister of the local church from 1909 to 1940.

Mr. Meixell began his pastorate here Jan. 19, is renewing acquaintances and meeting old friends, many whom he attended school with at the local schools.

He attended Temple University and received his bachelor of divinity and master of theology degrees from Temple's School of Theology. He was pastor of the United Methodist Church, Mt. Pocono, for seven years, prior to coming to Upland.

With his wife, the former Lynn Howell of Philadelphia and their children, Ruth 12, Wesley 10 and Rudy 3, he makes his home at 205 Eighth St., next door to the church.

Mrs. Meixell a graduate of the Philadelphia School of Art.

REV. W. K. MEIXELL

HOSPITAL CHAPLAIN TO SPEAK

ASTON — Rev. Wilbur Landmesser, chaplain of Lankenau Hospital, will speak at the "Pastor's Night for Families at St. Timothy Lutheran Church.

He will present the latest opinions of medical and theological authorities in the fields of abortion and vital organ transplants, with special emphasis on the ethics of Christians as they face these confusing areas of life.

There will be movies in the Sunday school room for the children.
