

M. Allman

Tues
10-12, 3,
maybe lunch

Black Philosophies of Liberation:

Spring, 1969

Suggested Syllabus

Early Ideas on the Abolition of Slavery (Two Weeks)

concepts of freedom
programs for freedom

syllabus

Mr. Crawford
Haiti
Marx to feed Doug.
peculiar Institution
economics of slavery
parallels with present - say friends was slavery ever really abolished?

- slave revolt: Turner, Vesey, Prosser; Latin America
- escape: Tubman, Sojourner Truth; church - spirituals; Latin America
- black nationalism: Delaney
- integration: Douglass

suggested sources, chapters to be specified:

Franklin, John Hope. From Slavery to Freedom
 Frazier, E. Franklin. The Negro in the U.S.
 Quarles, Benjamin. The Negro in the Making of America
 Bontemps, Arna. 100 Years of Negro Freedom
 Bennett, Lerone Before the Mayflower Mier, August, ed. Negro Protest Thought.

Anglo-African magazine
Delaney, et al.
find out if they were elite
communication

Aptheker, Herbert American Negro Slave Revolts.
 Mac Aduo, Bill Pre-Civil War Black Nationalism
 Douglass, Frederick. An American Slave

Integrationism (Three Weeks)

some concepts of integration; methods historical contexts for these approaches evaluation of success, failure; reasons

- Week 1: Booker T.; early DuBois - NAACP, Wilkins; the legal approach Week 2: Integration on the left:
 later DuBois, Robeson, Wright; Harlem Renaissance, unions: A Phillip Randolph, Bayard Rustin Week 3: M. L. King, Civil Rights Movement, Young; Father Divine

Adam Powell
J Raymond Jones
Politics

sources:

Washington, Booker T. The Atlanta Exposition
 The Crisis
 Lomax, Louis The Negro Revolt.

DuBois, W.E.B. The World and Africa ; Souls of Black Folk, Duck & Dawn
 Ellison, Ralph Shadow and Act
 Cruse, Harold The Crisis of the Negro Intellectual Wright, Richard

King, Martin Luther Strive for Freedom
 Why We Can't Wait
 Where Do We Go From Here
 Black Bourgeoisie,
 Ashmore, Harry The Other Side of Jordan

Marlyne A
Nolan
Cheryl W.
Bennett

Jannette
Delmer
Harold

Nationalism

(Three weeks)

- Week 1: back to Africa: Garvey, Pre-Civil War; Black religious sects
- Week 2: separate states: Muslims; Milton Henry; Robert Brown
- Week 3: non-territorial nationalism: political, social, economic; Malcolm cultural: Negritude; Muntu; African Socialism
Black Theatre

sources:

Garvey, Marcus. Edwards, Adolph	The Philosophy and Opinions of Marcus Garvey Marcus Garvey Dr. Mark
Essein-Udom Lincoln, C. Eric Muhammad, Elijah	Black Nationalism The Black Muslims in America Message to the Black Man
Malcolm X. Lester, Julius Brown, Robert Henry, Milton Black Power Conference	Malcolm Speaks Look Out Whitey Black Power 1968
Jones, Leroi Neal, Larry, et al Jahn, Jahnheinz Presence Africaine Senghor, Leopold Nyerere, Julius	Black Music Black Theatre Muntu Ujamaa

Colonialism

(Two Weeks)

definitions, analysis of oppression; imperialism; comparisons: Africa, U.S., Latin America programs for liberation

sources:

Nkrumah, Kwame " Fanon, Franz " " Clark, Kenneth Carmichael & Hamilton Williams, Eric Woods, Jack Palmer, Walt.	Neo-Colonialism Dark Days in Ghana Studies in a Dying Colonialism The Wretched of the Earth Toward the African Revolution Dark Ghetto Black Power Capitalism and Slavery Intro to Neo-Colonialism ch. on colonialism	ask Tralance to come Dr. Mark
--	--	--

*Manly A.
Russell
Jennette
Mike S.
Mike S.
Bennett*

BB 27

*BB
A*

