She stated that _____ been the subject of criticism by the school administration since he has taken on himself without clearing with others the responsibility of inviting controversial speakers to the school. In early October 1970, _____ invited _____ to talk on campus and he did not clear this invitation with the school administration before hand. As a result the administration felt they received undue adverse publicity over _____ appearance.

_____ also has conducted _____ discussion groups on the topics of _____ y which are supposedly open to the public and this action has not been approved by the school administration although it is regarded as action on his part over and beyond his authority in altering the course curriculum.

MRS. _____ stated _____ is generally regarded as a "radical" for this and similiar type action.

MRS. _____ was shown the wanted flyers on the subjects and she stated she is certain she has not seen them around that school. She will remain alert for any information concerning them.

MRS. _____ will also confidentially furnish pertinent information regarding any long distance telephone calls made or received by _____. She checked her slips for long distance calls made from the college for the past month and noted that none were listed as being made by _____ CHIEF _____ P. D., was contacted in this matter and shown wanted flyers on the subjects. He stated that these did not look familiar and he does not recall having seen them at or around the _____ residence. He noted that the _____ live 2 houses away from him and that his house is situated such that he can observe the _____ residence from the front of his house. He said he is certain that no one other than the _____ reside at this residence although a number of students visit there frequently. He recalled that during the past summer the _____ held a "rock festival" in their back yard attended by more than 50 college age youngsters. The Chief was required to break this up when it got too loud but this is the only occasion he has had to contact the _____ in police busieness.

The Chief noted that the garage to the rear of the _____ residence has been converted into a printing shop and it houses enough equipment to publish a newspaper. He does not know that a newspaper is published there but he is keeping a close eye on the garage to ascertain what activity takes place there. He said a leaflet was printed there several months ago and that this leaflet called for support for the _____ scheduled for trial in _____ 1970.

The Chief is certain that no one lives in the garage but he has seen "hippie types" frequent the garage. He will remain especially alert for the appearance of the subjects and he will contact his sources and alert them concerning the subjects.
