

THE SWARTHMOREAN

VOLUME 41 - NUMBER 25

SWARTHMORE, PA., 19081, FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1969

$5.50 PER YEAR

Library Schedules 4 July Thursdays 18th Cty Humor Topic For 2nd Year Course

The Summer Seminar sponsored by the Swarthmore Public Library and by the Friends of the Library will meet in the library from 1 until 2 p.m., on four Thursday afternoons in July, the 10th, 17th, 24th and 31st. Simultaneous Story Hours for children will be held in the Legion Room, Borough Hall. There is no charge for either. Registration is to be made in the library on Monday afternoon, June 23 from 2 until 4.

This Summer's Seminar Topic is Comedy in the 18th Century England and will offer varied and exciting discussions led by four different leaders.

The July 10th hour will consider Hogarth, humorist and satirist of his century. Background reading is M. Dorothy George's "London Life in the 18th Century." Other books are on loan for the seminar. From the Swarthmore College Library and the Free Library of Philadelphia. Mrs. John MacAlpine, 3rd, a graduate of Iowa State University in applied arts, and a resident of Park avenue, will lead the opening session.

Two Fielding novels "Joseph Andrews" and "Shamela" will be considered at the July 17th Session with Mrs. James I. Rosier the leader. Mrs. Rosier holds a BA degree from Stanford University and an MA from the University of Pennsylvania, where she is studying for her Ph.D.

Laurence Sterne's "Tristram Shandy" will be discussed on July 24th with Barbara Gates (Mrs. David S.) of Rutgers Avenue the leader. Mrs. Gates is a Danforth Fellow beginning her 3rd year of graduate study at Bryn Mawr in the fall. Her B.A. degree in English and history is from Northwestern University, her MA in English from the University of Delaware.

The final session on July 31st will have as its general theme drama in 18th Century England, considering three plays "The Beggar's Opera," "She Stoops to Conquer," and "The Rivals". (Continued on Page 4)

'Wild Horse Round-Up' Underway At Library

The Public Library's Summer program for its young readers is featuring a vacation Reading Club with the alluring title "Wild Horse Roundup" is now underway. Upon signing in, each child receives a card for his name and grade with the picture of a corral in which a horse will be pastured for every book read. On the back of the card these books will be listed. Reports are to be written or a picture made telling something about the story. Reading progress card and reports will be displayed on the bulletin board. Two reports will be taken at any time, but especially on Wednesday mornings. The Reading Club will end August 31.

Also offered will be four Story Hours to be given four July Thursdays, 10, 17, 24 and 31 during the Summer Seminar sessions. These will occur from 1 to 2 p.m.

To Hire Black Priest

The Vestry of Trinity Church at its meeting June 9, voted to hire a black priest. It is hoped that the appointment will be made by fall.

Service Weds.

For Dr. Getty Minister Had Served Locally In Retirement

Services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church on Harvard Avenue for the Rev. Walter Getty, D.D., administrator and pastor in the United Presbyterian Church, who died Sunday, June 15, aged 86.

Born in Philadelphia, he was educated in Mopnouth College Monmouth, Ill., Allegheny Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, and received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Tarkio College in Missouri.

During World War I Dr. Getty was the American representative of the International Young Men's Christian Association Hospitality League in London. Later he was an executive of Leadership Training and Promotion of the Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada on an interdenominational scale. He became an administrator for the Presbyterian United World Emergency Fund in connection with World War II and an executive of the Presbyterian Committee on Camp and Church Activities in charge of chaplains.

Dr. Getty was pastor of the 12th Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, the Tarkio Presbyterian Church and the First Presbyterian Church of Nyack, N. Y., from which he retired on December 19, 1957. He came immediately to Swarthmore to reside at 921 Harvard Avenue, in Morganwood. Dr. Getty served the Swarthmore church indefatigably as minister of visitation from July, 1958 through March, 1963, and for a brief period in the summer of 1967. He was active in the work of the Philadelphia Presbytery.

He is survived by his wife, the former Grace Langenberg, and a sister Mrs. Florence G. Cook of Glenside.

The Rev. Bertram de H. Atwood officiated, assisted by Dr. Edward A. Morris of Morganwood. Dr. Glenn R. Morrow of the church Session spoke for the congregation.

Contributions may be made in memory of Dr. Getty to The Swarthmore Presbyterian Church, Walter Getty Memorial Fund.

Rotary Meets Today

David Burrichter, administrator of the Delaware County Mental Health Institute will be the speaker today at the Rotary Club luncheon meeting at 12:10 at the Inglenook.

EMERGENCY BLOOD

Swarthmore Borough residents' requests for blood may be made to Mrs. Johan Natvig, Red Cross Chairman of Blood; KI 3-0324.

Awards To Late Lt. G. Hamilton Flying Cross, Medal Presented To Parents

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton of North Chester road accepted posthumous awards for their son, First Lieutenant George B. Hamilton, at a ceremony at McGuire Air Force Base, New Jersey, on June 5.

Lieutenant Hamilton, a pilot of an O-1E aircraft, died as a result of a crash during a take-off from Cu Chi Airfield, Republic of Vietnam, October 16, 1968.

Brigadier General John H. Herring Jr., 438th Military Airfield Wing commander, presented the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with first through third oak leaf cluster to the pilot's parents.

The Flying Cross was awarded Lieutenant Hamilton for "heroism while participating in aerial flight as a forward air controller near Dau Tieng, Republic of Vietnam, September 20, 1968."

"On that day, Lieutenant Hamilton directed an air strike in the dark early morning hours in support of a beleaguered American Infantry unit engaged in a bitter battle with a battalion-sized hostile force."

"Despite the intense and sustained ground fire directed at his aircraft, he made repeated passes over the enemy positions to mark them for fighter aircraft. His cool, professional direction of the air strike turned the tide of the battle into a rout of the hostiles and a victory for the American unit."

The Air Medal was presented for "meritorious achievement while participating in sustained aerial flight as a combat crew member in Southeast Asia from July 27, 1968 to August 16, 1968."

The lieutenant was cited for "outstanding airmanship and courage" in successfully accomplishing missions under extremely hazardous conditions including continuous ground fire from enemy positions.

Lieutenant Colonel Murray Howard, executive officer of the (Continued on Page 4)

Ecumenical Chaplain Will Serve Colleges

The Reverend John Ellwood Boyles, a chaplain at Yale, has been appointed ecumenical chaplain to Swarthmore, Haverford and Bryn Mawr for the coming year, and will have an office at each school. His assignment was made by the director of the Main Line United Ministries under the auspices of the United Ministries in Higher Education.

Mr. Boyles is a graduate of the Yale Divinity School and was ordained in the United Presbyterian Church in 1967. He has been associate pastor of the Yale Chapel, and the Presbyterian Chaplain of Yale University. He served also as general secretary of Dwight Hall, the Yale Christian Association, where he was director and advisor of student social service in New Haven and of campus activities.

He was a member of the Yale Religious Ministry in charge of ecumenical student work.

Summer Library Hours

Summer library hours go into effect on June 23.

The library will be open Monday through Friday from 2 p.m. until 9 p.m. On Wednesday morning, the library will also be open from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

This summer schedule will be followed until after Labor Day.

Swimmers Place 6th In Relays

Will Host Rose Tree, General Washington

The tough Swarthmore Swim Team placed a hard-fought sixth place in Marple Newtown Relay Carnival out of 13 League Teams in competition Saturday.

The placing relay teams were: Midgewater Girls 100 yd. free-style relay, 6th with Susie Baxter, Becky Brown, Wendy Johnson, Beth Rhodes; Junior girls' medley relay, 2nd with Julie Woodcock, Patti Sutherland, Liz Fukushima and Mindy Warner; Grand Slam relay, 6th with Sue Brown, Brad Brown, Susie Baxter, Alan Lin, Lester Lin, and Rick Croft.

The Swim Team has its first home meet with General Washington and Rose Tree Woods this Saturday at 9 a.m. The swimmers are to be at the pool by 8:30 a.m. The diving team will meet Rose Tree and General Washington tonight at Swarthmore. Judges and officials are needed both Friday and Saturday.

An apology is offered to 6:30 swimmers for the few days the gate was not opened on time. This has been corrected, but unless more than one or two people attend it will have to be discontinued, authorities state.

EAGLES' GAUER WEDNESDAY GUEST

The annual Swarthmore High School football outing and pre-season get together will be held at the Rutgers Avenue football field at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 25. At this time Coach Millard Robinson will meet with the '69 season candidates and go over football camp and plans for the summer.

A feature guest will be Charlie Gauer recently appointed offensive coach of the Philadelphia Eagles. Co-captains Lee Layton and Dave Shaffer are sending announcement cards out to all high school boys who have signed up. Any others interested are invited to attend.

PARKER TO GIVE FINAL SERMON HERE

The Rev. Pershing Parker, assistant minister of the United Methodist Church, will preach his final sermon this Sunday. For the past two years Mr. Mr. Parker has served the Swarthmore church for two years and now returns to Connecticut where, in the fall, he joins the faculty of Connecticut College.

College Appoints Black Educators Cline Arrives In July, H. Woodland In Sept.

Two black educators, William P. Cline and Horace Woodland, have been appointed to the positions of Assistant Dean of Admissions and Counselor, respectively, at Swarthmore College. Dr. Edward K. Cratsley, Acting President, announced after the meeting of the Board of Managers on June 6.

In addition to his duties in the Admissions Office, Mr. Cline will serve on the Ad Hoc Black Admissions Committee. He will assume his duties in July. He graduated from Oberlin College in 1955 and holds an M.A. in German from the University of Colorado and is working towards his Ph.D. degree in German literature. In the summers of 1964 and 1965 he served as American teacher-in-charge of Indiana University's Honors Program in Foreign Languages for High School students in Krefeld Germany. He has been teaching languages at Boulder High School in Boulder, Colo.

Mr. Woodland will arrive in September to serve as a counselor primarily for black students. He comes to Swarthmore from the Philadelphia Board of Education. He has been working with the Area Wide Council of the Model Cities program as project director of Operations Feedback; he served as consultant to the Education Standing Committee in 1968 and as Educator Planner to the Area Wide Council until the present. He was teacher of English at the Bok Vocational School from 1959 to 1968 when he was detached to serve with the Model Cities program. He was graduated from Lincoln University, holds the M.A. from Drew University, worked towards his Ph.D. at the University of Washington in sociology-political science, and did work in education at the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Woodland has served as a consultant on the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practices, as a consultant to the Educational Equality League, as a member of the Senior High School Textbook Committee, and as a member of the Evaluation Committee of the John Dickinson Senior High School District in Delaware. He is a trustee of the Black Youth Trust, and a resource person of Young Afro-Americans.

SECOND SEMINAR AT COLLEGE MON.

Dr. John W. Drake of the department of microbiology at the University of Illinois will speak on "Genetic Determination of Mutation Rates" at the second seminar of the colloquium on Chromosomes at the College on Monday, June 23. The seminars, sponsored by a Sloan Foundation grant to Swarthmore College, are being held on 10 Mondays during the summer in Room 110 in the Martin Biological Laboratory on the campus. The time is 4 p.m. and the seminars are open to all interested persons.