

USE
CHRISTMAS
SEALS

USE
CHRISTMAS
SEALS

VOLUME 41 - NUMBER 1

SWARTHMORE, PA., 1968, FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1969

$5.50 PER YEAR

Duo Exhibition To Open Sunday Original Prints On Display thru Jan. 30

A duo exhibition of original prints by Burton Wasserman and Susan Linott will open on Sunday, January 5, at 3 p.m. at the Community Arts Center, Wallingford. Mrs. Clinton Bradley will be hostess for the afternoon.

Mrs. Wasserman, who has exhibited widely and received numerous awards has achieved recognition as an artist and art educator. In addition to being a painter and printmaker he serves as a professor of art at Glassboro State College in New Jersey. He also contributes regularly on topics concerned with art and exhibition reviews to The Journal of the National Art Education Association and other publications in the field.

Naomi Linott received her M.B.A. degree in 1965 and is currently instructing in the graphic workshop, Cheltenham Township Art Center. Her work appears in the Temple United Church Permanent Collection as well as in other collections in this area and in Virginia. The exhibit will continue through January 30.

'Sharing of Talents'

An impressive Senior High School Assembly program designed to emphasize "giving" and "sharing" of talents, highlighted the last day of classes in 1968 at Swarthmore High School. The program gave students an opportunity to give of themselves when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.

The following students participated in the program: Michael Slott - narrator; Cheryl Price - piano solo; "Tribute to Aaron Copeland" Choral group - Gail Ayverson, Beth Brobeck, Miriam Taylor, Linda Smith, Bill Pastuszek, Bruce Seymour, Arthur Johnson, Steve Hart, Mark Oswald, directed by C. D. Sell.

Flautists - Cordell Glick and Kate Longfellow; Glockenspiel - Kathy Hensel.

Bass Ensemble - Dave Carroll, Pat Picard, Bill Clarke, Dave Oswald, Mark Pringle, Carl Rosen, directed by Robert Holm; Guitar - Bob Dean; Vocal Solo - Melba Fournier; "Little Jesus Boy" - Reading - Joseph Covert.

Lighting and stage crew - Richard Phillips, Terry Irving, Arthur Walsh, Don Aikens; Auditorium decorations - Snowflakes - 7th grade class; Tree - Debby Houghton, Laura Snyder, Judy Wright, Candy Jackson, Patty Coleman, Betty Welch.

The program was well attended and directed by Mrs. Alice Willites, faculty member in charge of Senior High Assemblies.

Ele. Home & School To Meet Jan. 22nd

The Elementary Home and School Association will meet Wednesday, January 22 at 8 p.m. in the all purpose room at Alice P. Little and Millard Robinson, directors of girls and boy's health education at the high school, will be the speakers.

L. PHELPS SOULE, FORMER RESIDENT

L. Phelps Soule, Barndt road, Telford, formerly of Swarthmore, died Friday, December 27, at the Grandview Hospital, Sellersville, of a heart attack. He was 85.

He had been residing with his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. John R. Brownell at the Telford address for the past five years.

In addition to his daughter, he is survived by his son Edmund. He was buried by his son Edmund.

CONCERT TUES. AT COLLEGE

Program To Feature Oboe, Piano Music

The music department of the college will present a concert of music for oboe and piano on Tuesday, January 7 at 8:15 p.m. in Bond Memorial Room on the campus.

Featuring will be the premiere performance of a composition for oboe and tape by Meyer Kuperman.

Pianist Gilbert Kalish will be joined by guest artist Ronald Roseman, oboist. Mr. Roseman is on the faculties of the State University of New York at Binghamton at Stony Brook, and of the Mannes College of Music. Since 1961 he has been oboist with the New York Woodwind Quintet and is a member of the New York Fur Musica and a founder of the Galliard Baroque Ensemble.

The program will also include works by Telemann and Poulenc.

This concert, one of the Wednesday series of chamber music concerts will be performed on Tuesday instead of Wednesday, January 8, as originally scheduled.

These concerts are made possible by grants from the Barndt and the Central Special Ventures Fund. They are free and open to the public.

MEETING WEDS. FOR PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

The monthly meeting of the women's Association of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church will be held on Wednesday, January 8. A 12 o'clock worship service in the sanctuary will be led by Mrs. Glenn M. Morrow.

The luncheon following in McChas Hall takes a different form from before in that each person will bring her own sandwich. Dessert and beverage will be provided at a nominal price for the past year.

Circle 8, Mrs. J. Roy Carroll, Jr., chairman, will serve. The afternoon meeting will include an installation of newly elected officers, followed by a program presenting the accomplishments of the association for the past year. Several women will participate to illustrate the principal activities.

Jr. Board To Meet

The board of the Junior Women's Club will hold its 10 Monday Night from January 27, 1969 through March 31. Advertising in another section of this newspaper lists courses and registration fees.

College Team On College Bowl 5th

Swarthmore College will have a second chance to play the GE College Bowl game on January 5, 1969. Charles Raff, assistant professor of philosophy, is coaching the 1969 team every day.

The team is composed of three seniors—Nancy Bekavac of Clifton, Pa.; Michael Hattersley of Trumbull, Conn.; and Michael Miller of Malibu, California—and a junior, William Holt of St. Louis, Missouri. Bekavac and Hattersley are majors in Literature in the Honors program, Miller is an Honors major in political science and Holt is a zoology major.

Swarthmore was a three game winner in 1958 when a team last appeared on the GE College Bowl.

On January 5, Swarthmore will meet the winner of the last week's competition.

FOLK TALES FLIT FOR STORY HOUR

Films of three universally popular folk tales will intersperse a folk tale Public Story Hour, second and third graders on Wednesday afternoon, January 8 from 3:30 to 4:30, Legion Room, Borough House.

Mrs. David Weston, children's librarian, has arranged to project Millions of Cats, Wanda Gág's famous picture book about a very old man who set out to find the prettiest cat in the world for his wife; Stone Soup, Marguerite Brewster's version of an old French folk tale about three tired, hungry soldiers who stole the stings, village peasants of a French village into providing them with a fine banquet; and The House That Jack Built in which animated paper cut-outs provide a colorful, artful visualization of the familiar nursery rhyme.

The cumulative version, riddled with dry humor, are accompanied by varying views of the characters. Interesting sounds are provided by a variety of guitar, organ, and wood block.

Springfield Lions Give School Date

President of the Springfield Lions Club Vincent Cliff, announces the registration dates for the Winter semester of the Springfield Adult School to be held on Wednesday, January 8, 12:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the Springfield High School office.

Donald McNeil, administrator of the school, reports that the 1968 fall semester produced the highest registration in the 17-year history of the school.

The Winter semester will offer 29 courses with tennis, badminton and intermediate tennis for the past year. The first time. Small Business Management offered in cooperation with the Federal Small Business Administration has been returned to the program.

The Adult School will be held 10 Monday Nights from January 27, 1969 through March 31. Advertising in another section of this newspaper lists courses and registration fees.

SWARTHMORE TEAM FOR COLLEGE BOWL SUN

Michael Hattersley, Nancy Bekavac, Michael Miller, William Holt

Rev. Martin Tuesday Evening Speaker

The Rev. Charles C. Martin will speak at the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, January 7th at 8 p.m. The subject of his meditation will be "Father, Stay, Your Name Be Kept Holy."

The New Year has always been a special time of prayer in the Church. The Women's Association of the Swarthmore Presbyterian Church has observed the "Week of Prayer" with special services for many years. And this year, with the Worship Committee of the Session, has planned this service for the entire church congregation and members of the community.

Mr. Martin was long an active and devoted member of the Swarthmore Church. He is now serving as minister of the Newtown Presbyterian Church.

LWJ Joint Meeting To Discuss China

On Thursday, January 16, the League of Women Voters of Swarthmore, in cooperation with the League of Springfield, Upper Providence - Middle-town, and North Providence, will hold a luncheon meeting in Springfield. It is expected that consensus will be reached at the meeting on the question of U.S. policy toward the People's Republic of China.

A panel of League members will present the three consensus questions and discuss them briefly. Background information and arguments pro and con are presented in the two League "Facts and Issues": "Mainland China: U.S. Policy Choices" and "Chinese Resettlement in the U.S." Two will be available at unit meetings and from Mrs. William Hensel (KI 4-6354) at a nominal cost. Members are urged to read these before the meeting, and come prepared to discuss the questions.

Reservations for the luncheon, which begins at noon, must be made by January 9 with Mrs. John L. Cernig, KI 3-1842.

Jr High Club To Give Play Dramatic Group Sets Jan. 10 Performance

The Swarthmore Junior High School Dramatic Club will present "It's High Time," a three act comedy by Betty Knapp in the high school auditorium next Friday night, January 10 at 8.

The theme of the play is the age old conflict between dramatics and sports. Trying to combine the two is the problem faced by Marian Summers (Gaye Wright), a new teacher trying to present a play in a small high school. Beset by such problems as Johnny (Andy Shay), who loves to "ham" until he is really called upon, and then develops a genuine case of stage fright; Cora Brewster (Marcia Velt), determined to be the star and willing to go to any lengths to get the part; Charles and Fred (Eddie Riggs and Richard Foley), football players sadly needed abjectly and dramatically.

Mr. Trout (Scott Johnson), the principal, with a barbed bow for theatrical adventures; and the determined coach, Dave Trevasika. The supporting cast includes: David Oswald, the competent stage hand; Sally Thompson, the Home Economics teacher; Kelly L. McCaffrey, a girl of much theatrical ability; Hannah McCubbery, the Prompter; Betsy Burnett, Cora's mother; Barbara Hayden, efficient helper and actress; Ann Martha Logue (Anna), a steady stage hand; and Emily Wolf (Sally Clark), originally chosen the lead.

The action of the play takes place on the stage in the auditorium of the Union City High School. Kathy Fischer is the prompter and the student director. The production staff is as follows:

Stage, Hannah McCubbery and Barbara Hayden; Properties, Barbara Sledge, Tickets and Ushers, Jack Cotman assisted by Karen Taylor and Cindy Parmaster; and Programs, Sally Thompson.

Council Adopts 1969 Budget

Taxes Up 2 1/2 Mills; No Per Capita This Year

Swarthmore Town Council adopted a 1969 budget totaling $243,000 in income and $243,045 in expenses for the year.

Although actual adoption of tax and salary ordinances was reserved for the regular January 13 meeting, the budget calls for a 2 1/2 mill realty tax, an increase of 2 1/2 mills over last year; half of the one percent realty transfer tax levied by the School District; and a $30 per household levy to cover the new combined garbage and trash collection.

Council will not collect any of the per capita tax the school board plans to abandon, for the coming year at least. But Dr. Edward Cratsley, Council president, said:

"We shouldn't permanently set aside the concept of a per capita levy. Under a new state law the borough will be setting and collecting the per capita tax in February in 1970 and such a tax would be easier to levy and collect at that time of year than it would be if continued to bill concurrently with the School District at the beginning of its fiscal year in July."

One official stated that several people had strongly opposed in favor of retaining or re-establishing the per capita tax.

Dr. Cratsley said the new budget provided $4600 in hope of securing a part-time borough manager to relieve Council of some of the administrative burden of the borough, which cannot be handled by the Borough Secretary and her assistant.

At a raise the salary of police chief from $7560 to $9100, that of sergeant from $6750 to $8000 and patrolman from $4800 to $7500. Contribution toward the public program of Swarthmore Recreation Association was raised from $125 to $200.

Dr. Cratsley consolidated committees somewhat in re-establishing the per capita tax. (Continued on Page 3)

FORUM SLATES ROBERT WOODSON

Robert Woodson, director of Studies at the University of Dallas, will speak at the Friends Forum to be held at 9:45 Sunday in the DuPont Lecture Hall. He will discuss the history, function and programs currently in effect at the fellowship. His talk is the first of a series of at this time in the Friends Meeting House on the campus.

YEATS TOPIC FOR LECTURE JAN. 9TH

The Cooper Foundation and Swarthmore College will present Brendan Kennelly in a lecture on Thursday, January 9, at 8:15 p.m. in the Friends Meeting House on the campus.

The lecture is entitled "An Experiment in Living—Yeats and the Artists' Life." Mr. Kennelly is from Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland. The lecture is free and open to the public.