How do I know who is my virtual facilitator? What is their role?

A virtual facilitator is assigned to each student. The facilitator is available to assist with Edgenuity and monitoring student progress and attendance. If a student is not actively logging the necessary amount of time (20 hours a week), as well not making adequate progress, facilitators will record this information. The best method to contact a facilitator is via email (See chart below). Students will have access to their own district-created e-mail address. Virtual facilitators are only available during the time designated in their daily schedule so there may be a delay in their responses. Your facilitator may change based on scheduling needs as the semester processes.

You can find your Virtual Facilitator's name on your schedule, next to class period (CP) 10.
