Digital Devices Handbook

Policies & Procedures

Rationale

Hudson ISD uses Instructional Technology as one way of enhancing its mission to prepare and inspire all students for life-long success by teaching skills, knowledge, and behaviors students will need as responsible citizens in the global community. Students learn collaboration, communication, creativity, and critical thinking in a variety of ways throughout the school day. Excellence in education requires that technology is seamlessly integrated throughout the education program. Increasing access to technology is essential for the future, and some of the learning tools of 21st Century students are digital devices. The individual use of digital devices is a way to empower students to maximize their full potential and to prepare them for college and the workplace.

Learning results from continuous dynamic interaction among students, educators, parents, and the extended community. Technology immersion does not diminish the vital role of the teacher. To the contrary, it transforms the teacher from a director of learning to a facilitator of learning. Effective teaching and learning with digital devices can integrate technology into the curriculum anytime, anyplace.

The policies and procedures within this document apply to all digital devices (such as laptops, netbooks, iPads, iPods, etc.) purchased by Hudson ISD. Teachers may set additional requirements for use in their classroom.
