CONSUMER PRIVACY NOTICE

To underwrite your insurance request, the Company may ask for additional personal information, such as an insurance medical exam; lab tests; medical records from your insurance company, physician or hospital; a report from the Medical Information Bureau (MIB), a non-profit organization of life insurance companies that exchanges information among its members. Information about your insurability is confidential. Without your express authorization, the Company or its reinsurers may send your information to government agencies that regulate insurance; or, without identifying you, to insurance organizations for statistical studies; or may make a brief report of health information to the MIB. If you apply to a MIB member company for life or health insurance, or submit a benefits claim for benefits to a member company, the MIB, upon request, will supply the member company with the information in its file. You or your authorized representative have the right to: receive by mail or to copy your personal information in the Company or MIB files, including the source and who received copies within the past two years; to correct or amend personal information in these files; to know specific reasons why coverage was not issued as applied for; and to revoke your authorization at any time. At your written request, within 30 days the Company will explain in writing how to learn what is in your file, its source, how to correct or amend it or how to learn why coverage was not issued as applied for. You can send a written statement as to why you disagree. If we correct or amend the information, we will notify you and anyone who may have received the information. If we do not agree with your statement, we will notify you and keep your statement in your file.

For further information about your file or your rights, you may contact:
