COACHING STAFF

Craig Liddell, Camp Director:

Head Coach of the quality Enid High School Pacers and Plainsmen soccer programs (twentieth years). A native of Edinburgh, Scotland where he grew up playing on the streets and on top club teams where he was twice a player on National youth championship teams. He was a four-year college player who captained each of his teams. Played two years at Phillips University and two years at California Baptist University where he was a two-time All-Conference selection. Craig has a B.S. degree in Kinesiology and holds both a USSF National “A” license and a National Youth license from US Soccer. Two-time All-State Coach.

Jorge Cabada, Lead Coach:

Varsity Coach for Pacers & Plainsmen soccer (4th year). Experienced youth coach who is focused on development. Great way with youngsters. National Youth license from US Soccer.

Tim Lavoie, Lead Coach:

Varsity Coach for Pacers & Plainsmen soccer (2nd year). Long time Enid connections, including time as EHS Coach and great links for recruiting in his years as a high-level college coach.

The other coaches will be made up of dedicated soccer coaches who have links to the Enid area either from their involvement with Enid High Soccer as a current or former coach, and/or as a player for the Big Blue!
