

The Kansas School Safety Hotline

(1-877-626-8203)

became operative August 1, 1999, for use by students, parents, and community members in anonymously reporting any impending school violence. As of August 1, 2016, 5,694 hotline calls were logged with 1,166 of them being referred to school districts and/or law enforcement agencies.