

OU Trombone Day
February 9, 2019
University of Oklahoma, Norman

To: All 6th-12th Grade Low Brass Players (Trombones, Baritones, Tubas)

Dr. Irvin Wagoner, Trombone Professor at the University of Oklahoma, is hosting his annual Trombone Day on February 9th. This event is a wonderful opportunity for our low brass students to learn and perform with some of the best collegiate instrumental instructors in the state. The cost of the event is $25.00 and this will cover all class, music, and 2 meals (breakfast and lunch). If your child is interested please fill out the form below and have them return to Mr. Gregg (with payment) by January 31st. I will need to know how many students are interested by this date for transportation reasons. The following is an overview of the day (subject to change):

6:00 am-Leave from the Durant High School Band Hall
8:30 am-Check in and breakfast
9:00 am-Introductions and a short concert by the OU Trombone Choir
9:45 am-Discussion on the Fundamentals of Playing
10:15 am-Break into small groups where the beginners play, the intermediates play, and the High Schools and College do a Trombone Choir
11:30 am-Come back together for a short concert by OSU and UCO Trombone Choirs
Lunch
1:00 pm-Another short concert
1:30 pm-A general master class
2:30 pm-Break into the groups again
4:00 pm-Come back together and perform for each other—beginners play, intermediates play, etc.
5:00 pm-Finish
8:00 pm-Return to Durant High School

This is a fantastic event and a lot of fun. Your child will truly have a great time.
