

Seeking Volunteers for GLOBECOM 2015 Conference

GLOBECOM, which is a premier conference of IEEE Communications Society, is being held this year in San Diego from Dec. 6 (Sunday) – Dec. 10 (Thursday). The conference organizers are looking for about 30 volunteers from 8am – 6pm each day (full day only) to help out with the registration, and technical and industry sessions/workshops/ tutorials/panels.

Volunteers will be provided meals on the day(s) they volunteer besides one extra day of complimentary registration for attending the conference. The parking and trolley expenses for the day of volunteering will be reimbursed. Also, the travel expenses (gas or train) of the volunteers from Los Angeles and Orange County will be reimbursed.

While we welcome any volunteer, we look forward to volunteers from the IEEE San Diego and neighboring chapters, Student Branches, Life Members, and Consultants Network, Societies of Hispanic, Black and Women Engineers, CommNexus, CONNECT, Startups, Trade Consultants, CANIETI, and Mexican ICT Chamber.

Please fill out the Doodle scheduling link given below.

<https://doodle.com/poll/de2t3d84aev6dri4>

For any questions, please contact Prof. Sunil Kumar at skumar@mail.sdsu.edu, or Dr. Liangping Ma at liangping.ma@interdigital.com.

The conference details are available at <http://globecom2015.ieee-globecom.org/>