

Plan your next trip, training party or meeting better

What is the problem?

Do you remember the confusion and frustration of trying to plan your last corporate trip, training session, meeting, or company party? Digging through emails, trying to get the guest list together, gathering and tracking the RSVPs and getting everyone on the same page before the meeting is a frustrating task.

How do we solve it?

MangoEvents allows you plan your next event with ease. Let us take on the hard work, so you can get back to enjoying the event. Setting up an event invitation is simple with the 30 second quick event creation or the full 3 step event creation wizard. Easily invite industry partners outside your domain and keep your next event social like it should be.

Event Management

Event Creation

MangoEvents allows two ways to create an event; a 30 second quick event and a full 3 step event creation wizard.

Event Socialization

Before, during and after your event post pictures, videos or files connecting everyone who was invited to the event.

Event Committee

Invite other event planners to co-administer your next event. Easily delegate tasks to more effectively plan events.

Access Anywhere

Plan your events from any desktop browser, and share or view events on iPhone, iPad, Android, and BlackBerry devices.

Event Collaboration

Real Time Communication

Discuss Events with the whole team using microblogging and switch to private instant messaging or voice calls with a single click.

Full Integration

Integrate MangoEvents with your own workflow tools using the open APIs and an on-premise deployment.
