

Where is your next $100M idea going to come from?

What is the problem?

The traditional ways of managing your ideas do a better job of letting the good ones slip through the cracks then bring them out. Without true idea collaboration, you might as well stick with the traditional wooden comment box, and hope you remember to check it before another company figures it out first.

How do we solve it?

MangoIdeas allows you to capture the next $100M idea no matter when or where it comes from. With access anywhere and true collaborating, all ideas come forward not just the loudest ones. When your team can submit ideas, comment, like and follow other's ideas you will be able to see the ideas that create the most buzz and might be worth more than just another look.

Idea Management

Create an Idea Committee

The idea committee is chosen to escort the proposed ideas through the idea life cycle. They can monitor and moderate comments and refinements

Full Idea Life Cycle

The life cycle is a multistage process to socialize, refine, prioritize and ultimately implement or defer ideas. Everyone is kept up to date real-time.

Centralized, Permanent Ideas

One centralized tool for authoring, sharing and refining ideas. All ideas, comments and attachments are archived and searchable.

Access Anywhere

Ideas can come at anytime, at the gym, during your commute, when you wake up or in the shower. Capture your ideas right away, as you think of them.

Idea Collaboration

Real Time Communication

Discuss ideas with the whole team using microblogging and switch to private instant messaging or voice calls with a single click.

Full Integration

Integrate MangoIdeas with your own workflow tools using the open APIs and an on-premise deployment.
