Arquitectonica and Clodagh Design to Open EAST, Miami This Winter

Swire Hotels has announced that it is on schedule to open the new EAST, Miami, this winter at Brickell City Centre, a $1.05 billion mixed-use development.

Architecture firm Arquitectonica, in collaboration with New York-based Clodagh Design, is responsible for the design of the hotel. The 352 guestroom property will include eight suites and 89 one-, two-, and three-bedroom residences, all with kitchens, laundry facilities and access to the hotel's amenities and services. Rooms will also have private balconies, contemporary interiors, and floor-to-ceiling windows with views of Miami and Biscayne Bay.

Dining options will include Quinto La Huella, located on the fifth floor, offering both indoor and outdoor seating, a stone hearth oven and a sushi bar. Another dining venue, Sugar, is the hotel's rooftop bar, which was designed by Los Angeles-based Studio Collective. EAST, Miami will also have a lobby café and bar, Domain.

Space for events, banquets and meetings will include four workshop areas located on the sixth floor ranging in size from 640 square feet to 840 square feet. The 38th floor will have a 1,400-square foot pre-function space, Rise and Set, and a 400-square-foot boardroom, High Noon, while a 3,400 square-foot ballroom, The Crush, will be located on the 39th floor, affording 270 degrees of ocean and urban views. A space called Shrubbery and Sugar will serve as an area for outdoor events.
