"The Society" means the Arabian Horse Society of Australia Limited. "The Unincorporated Society" means the Arab Horse Society of Australia.

"The Board" means the Board of Directors of the Society

"Officers" includes the Chairman, Senior Vice-Chairman, Vice Chairman, Treasurer, Directors, Secretary and Auditor.

"The Articles" means the Articles of Association as amended from time to time pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1961.

"Member" means a person registered in the records of the Society as a member of the Society, but does not include a Junior Member.

"Junior Member" means a person registered as a Junior Member of the Society.

"person" includes a corporation and the Government of the Commonwealth or any State or any Government instrumentality.

"The Regulations" means the Rules and By-Laws (if any) of the Society made in accordance with the Articles and in force for the time being.

"Secretary" means the Secretary appointed by the Board pursuant to Article 61 hereof and, where the context reasonably permits, shall include any Acting Secretary or Assistant Secretary appointed by the Board.

"financial year" means the period from the first day of January in any year to the thirty-first day of December in the same year.

"in writing" and "written" includes printing lithography and other modes of reproducing or representing words in a visible form.

Words importing the singular number only include the plural and vice versa.

Words importing one gender only include the plural gender.

Unless the context otherwise requires the expressions which are defined in the Act in force on the date of incorporation of the Society shall except for those expressions defined above have the same meaning when used in these regulations.

MEMBERSHIP

2. The membership of the Society shall consist of Ordinary Members, Life Members, Judges Members, Associate Members and Friends of the AHSA Members and any other membership type as approved by the Board. An ordinary member shall be any Member who is not a Life Member, Judges Member, Associate Member or Friends of the AHSA Member. A Judges Member shall be a member who is a member of the Arabian Horse Society of Australia Ltd Judges Panel and who does not conduct any transactions other than membership with the Society. An Associate Member shall be a member who only has Gelding horses registered with the Society. Friends of the AHSA Member shall be a Member of the Society who does not have any transactions with the Society other than Membership and does not have voting rights. (Changed AGM 2014)

3. Any person may apply for membership of the Society provided however that:-

(a) if two or more persons carrying on business in partnership become members of the Society as partners all of such partners shall for the purpose of these Articles be regarded as one member only and the partners who shall be entitled to exercise the rights and privileges of membership shall be such one of the partners who is for the time being and from time to time nominated as such in writing by all of the partners;

(b) if two or more members are joint owners of any horse all such joint members shall for the purpose of these Articles be regarded as one member only and the joint owner who shall be entitled to exercise the rights and privileges of membership shall be such one of such joint members who is for the time being and from time to time nominated as such in writing by all of the joint members

4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary the Members of the Unincorporated Society at the date of its winding up shall become and be Members of the Society on its incorporation and shall not be required to apply for membership of the Society. Every member of the Unincorporated Society who was a financial Member thereof at the date of its winding up shall be deemed a financial member of the Society on its incorporation.

5. The number of Members with which the Society proposes to be registered is 1,400 but the Board may from time to time register an increase in the number of Members.

LIFE MEMBERS

6. Any person who in the opinion of the Board has rendered special service of at least ten consecutive years to the Society (which for the purposes of this Article, shall include the Unincorporated Society) and the Arabian breed of horses may by resolution of the Board carried by a majority of three-fifths of the Members of the Board be appointed a Life Member of the Society.

7. Every Life Member shall be entitled to all the privileges and be subject to all the duties and obligations of an Ordinary Member and shall not be liable for any subscription or levy except in respect of the guarantee contained in the Memorandum of Association.

JUNIOR MEMBERS

8. Any person under the age of eighteen may apply to become a Junior member of the Society. A Junior Member is not a member of the Society and shall not be entitled to any of the rights and privileges of membership of the Society other than the right to register horses in the manner prescribed by the Regulations. A Junior Member is subject to all the duties and obligations of an Ordinary Member but shall not be liable for any levy or subscription other than that determined by the Board to be the annual subscription for junior membership of the Society. A Junior member shall cease to be a Junior Member one month after he attains the age of nineteen (19) years or upon his election as a Member of the Society whichever is the earlier.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

9. An applicant for membership or for junior membership of the Society shall apply in writing in the manner prescribed by the Regulations.

10. On receipt of an application for membership or junior membership, the Secretary shall send a list of the names and addresses of the applicants to the Board by the end of the month. If no objection is received by the Secretary from the Board by the tenth day of the following month the applicants shall be elected as Members or Junior Members as the case may be.

11. Immediately upon the election of a member in accordance with Article 10 hereof the Secretary shall give such member notice of his election together with a copy of the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the regulations of the Society.

12. Every person elected as a Member or Junior member of the Society shall pay to the Secretary the entrance fee (if any) together with the annual subscription for membership of the Society. If the full amount so payable is not received by the Secretary within fourteen days of the date of the election of the member or Junior member, the election shall be declared null and void.

13. The entrance fee and the annual subscription shall be such amounts as the Board may decide.

14. Any person elected a member or Junior Member of the Society shall if he is elected after the expiration of six months from the date of commencement of the financial year in which he is elected pay one half only of the annual subscription in respect of that financial year.

15. A register of Members and Junior Members shall be kept by the Secretary and the names and addresses of every Member and every Junior member shall be recorded in the appropriate register. Each register shall be kept at the office of the Society and shall be available to members for inspection at all reasonable times. Each Member and each Junior Member shall notify the Secretary of any change of address and every such change shall be recorded in the appropriate register.

- (d) if at a meeting of the Board specially convened for that purpose, at which not less than eight (8) members of the Board are present, a resolution be passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of those present and voting declaring the office of such Director vacated.
- (e) if he becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally.
- (f) if he becomes prohibited from being a Director of a company by reason of any order made under the Act.
- (g) if he becomes of unsound mind or a person whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental health.
- (h) if he is directly or indirectly interested in any contract or proposed contract with the Society provided, however, that a Director shall not vacate his office by reason of his being a member of any corporation, society or association which has entered or proposes to enter into a contract with the Society if he shall have declared the nature of his interest in the matter required by the Act.
- (i) if he ceases to reside in the State of Australia where he was resident at the time he was elected.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD

48. The Board shall meet at least once in each financial year and may meet so often and at such times and at such place or places as it may from time to time determine. In default of the Board nominating the time and place of any such meeting, the Secretary shall determine the same and notify the Directors thereof.

49. The Secretary shall convene a Board Meeting if directed by the Chairman or by any three Directors.

50. At all meetings of the Board except those at which a resolution under Article 47(d) is to be put to the Board six Directors shall represent a quorum. In the event of a quorum not being present within half an hour of the time appointed, the Chairman, or in his absence, the senior Vice-Chairman present at the meeting shall postpone the meeting to such date; time and place as may be considered by him to be suitable.

51. The Chairman at any meeting of the Board shall be the Chairman of the Society or if at any meeting he is not present within 10 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the senior Vice-Chairman present at the meeting but if he be similarly unavailable then the meeting shall elect a chairman from the members present and the chairman may perform all the duties and exercise the discretion of the Chairman.

52. At all meetings of the Board the Chairman's ruling shall be final in all matters of order and practice.

53. The Board may by resolution from time to time adjourn its meetings to such time and place as the Board may think fit. Business on the agenda for any Board Meeting which has not been completed or dealt with at such meeting may be completed or dealt with as the case may be at any such adjourned meeting.

54. Subject to the Articles questions arising at any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes and a determination by a majority of the members of the Board shall for all purposes be deemed a determination of the Board. Each Director shall have one vote except that in case of an equality of votes the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

55. If at any meeting of the Board a poll is demanded by any Director it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman shall direct.

56. No objections shall be made to the validity of any vote except at the Board meeting at which such vote is tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes whatsoever.

57. No Director shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Board or of any committee or of any sub-committee or to be elected an office bearer unless his subscription has been paid for the current financial year.

58. A Director shall not vote in respect of any contract or proposed contract with the Society in which he is interested or any matter arising thereout and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted.

59. A resolution in writing signed by all the members of the Board for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board shall be valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more members of the Board.

60. Any Director may give to the Secretary at least sixty days notice of any resolution which he intends to submit to a meeting of the Board but this provision shall in no way prejudice the right of any Director to raise any matter at a meeting of the Board without having given such notice.

61. Minutes of the proceedings of the Board shall be recorded by the Secretary in a Minute Book kept for the purpose. The Minutes shall be verified and signed by the chairman of the meeting to which they relate or be verified at the next succeeding Board Meeting and signed by the chairman of that meeting. When signed, the Minutes shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

SUB-COMMITTEES

62. The Board may delegate any of its powers to a sub-committee consisting of such member or members of the Board as they think fit; any sub-committee so formed shall in the exercise of the powers so delegated conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Board.

63. Chairman of sub-committees shall be nominated by the Board. If at any meeting of a subcommittee The Chairman is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting the members present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

64. A sub-committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in the case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

CHAIRMAN, VICE-CHAIRMAN AND TREASURER

65. A Chairman, Senior Vice-Chairman and a Vice-Chairman shall be elected annually by the Board, amongst the Directors present at the first meeting of the Board after the Annual General meeting of the Society. The Chairman and each Vice-Chairman shall hold office until the close of the Annual General Meeting next succeeding the date of his election.

66. The Board shall elect an Honorary Treasurer who shall hold office until the close of the Annual General Meeting next succeeding the date of his appointment.

67. Subject to the Articles the functions of the Honorary Treasurer may be prescribed by the Board.

68. Neither the office of Chairman nor the office of Treasurer shall be occupied by the same person for more than three consecutive years

GENERAL MEETINGS

69. The Annual General Meeting of the Society shall be held in each calendar year within a period of four calendar after the end of the financial year at such time and place as the Chairman of the Board shall direct.

70. The Board may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the members of the Society if and where it shall think it desirable to do so or if so directed by the Chairman or by a direction in writing signed by at least ten percent of the members of the Society entitled to vote at a General Meeting.

71. (a) A General Meeting may be convened by not less than twenty one day's notice in writing specifying the date, time and place at which such meeting shall be held.

(b) Notice of a General Meeting shall be given to every financial member.

(c) A Notice shall be deemed to have been given to a Member if it is:

(i) delivered to such member personally; or

(ii) addressed to such Member at his address which appears on the Society's register and is either delivered to that address or posted by prepaid post to such member. Any notice so posted shall be deemed to have been given to the addressee at the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time of posting.

(d) No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

72. Wherever practicable the notice convening the meeting shall state the nature of any special business to come before the meeting,

73. The Chairman at any meeting of the Society shall be the Chairman or if he is not present within ten minutes of the time appointed for holding the meeting the Senior Vice-Chairman who is present or if he is similarly unavailable then the Vice-Chairman or if he is similarly unavailable, then a Director present and elected at the meeting.

74. At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded:-

(a) By the Chairman; or

(b) By at least three Members present in person or by proxy. Unless a poll is so demanded a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

75. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded but a poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith.

76. The demand of a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.

77. The Board may consult the members at any time by ballot in lieu of a General Meeting. Any such ballot shall be taken in such manner and in accordance with such conditions as the Board may prescribe.

QUORUM OF GENERAL MEETINGS

78. The quorum of a General Meeting of the Society shall be thirty persons present in person. *
If a quorum is not present within ten minutes after the time set down for holding the meeting if convened upon the requisition of member shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to a day and hour and at a place fixed by the majority of the members present and at such adjourned meeting the members present shall form a quorum. *Change made at AGM 2003

79. The chairman of any General Meeting may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present and shall if so directed by the meeting adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. No poll shall be demanded on any question of adjournment.

PROXIES

80. Members may by proxy attend and vote at meetings of the Society.

81. Proxies shall be in such form as is prescribed by the Board and shall be signed by the member appointing the proxy.

82. A form of proxy shall accompany each notice sent to members convening a General Meeting of Members.

83. No proxy shall be effective unless received by the Secretary at least twenty-four hours prior to the opening of the meeting at which it is intended to be used.

84. A proxy may be given in respect of one or more specified meetings or may be given to apply to all meetings held within a specified period.

85. No person shall be eligible for appointment as proxy to attend a General Meeting unless such person be a Member of the Society.

DIVISIONS

86. The Board may authorise the formation by members of the Society of associations which may be termed 'Divisions of the Society' in areas where in the opinion of the Board the membership of the Society is sufficiently large to warrant the formation of such associations. Such associations shall be independent of the Society which shall incur no liability in respect of them. No such association shall be formed by any Member of the Society for the purposes of promoting the Arab Breed or Horses nor may such association incorporate the name of the Society in the title of such association except with the written authorisation of the Board which authorisation may at any time be revoked. Such associations authorised by the Board shall be responsible for their own control and management.

SECRETARY

87. There shall be a Secretary of the Society who shall be appointed by the Board for such term and at such salary and upon such conditions as the Board may from time to time think fit. The Board shall have power at any time to revoke any such appointment and to make a fresh appointment.

88. The Board may at any time as the occasion may require appoint and dismiss an Acting Secretary or an Assistant Secretary.

89. The Secretary shall perform such functions as he may from time to time be directed by the Board to perform.

ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

90. The Board shall cause proper accounting and other records to be kept and shall send to every member with the notice of convening the Annual General Meeting of the Society a copy of every Profit and Loss Account and Balance Sheet (including every document required by law to be attached thereto) accompanied by a copy of the Auditor's Report thereon as required by the Act, provided however the Board shall cause to be made out and laid before each Annual General Meeting a Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account made up to a date not more than five months before the date of the Annual General Meeting.

91. The Board shall from time to time determine at what time and place and under what conditions and regulations the accounting and other records of the Society shall be open to the inspection of members not being members of the Board.

REGISTERED OFFICE

92. The office of the Society shall be at such place as the Board may from time to time determine.

SEAL

93. The Board shall provide for the safe custody of the seal of the Society which shall only be used by the authority of the Board or a sub-committee of the Board authorised by the Board in that behalf and every instrument to which the seal is affixed shall be signed by a member of the Board and shall be counter-signed by the Secretary or by a second member of the Board or by some other person appointed by the Board for that purpose and a record shall be made of details of the affixation.

BANK ACCOUNT

94. The bank account of the Society shall be operated upon by cheques and other instruments in such manner and by such persons as the Board from time to time determine and subject thereto shall be operated upon by cheques in the name of the Society signed by any two of the following:-

The Chairman, The Honorary Treasurer, The Secretary and any other person authorised by the Board for that purpose.

STUD RECORDS

95. A member shall be required to keep proper records of his stud breeding activities and all such records shall be open for inspection to any person authorised by the Board to inspect the same and any such persons shall be at liberty to take such copies thereof or extracts therefrom as he may think fit.

STUD BOOK

96. The Board shall keep or cause to be kept the Stud Book of the Society and may from time to time make Regulations governing the maintenance thereof the information to be recorded therein and the eligibility of animals for registration or entry therein.

97. The Board shall whenever it considers it appropriate so to do print and publish a volume of the register containing such records of registration as have been recorded in the Register since the then last published volume.

98. The Board may include in any volume any matter which it considers appropriate.

INDEMNITY

99. Officers of the Society shall, subject to approval by the Board be entitled to be indemnified out of the funds of the Society and by members jointly against all loss and liability bona fide and properly incurred in the carrying out of their functions on behalf of the Society.

WINDING UP

100. The provisions of Clause 8 of the Memorandum of Association relating to winding up or dissolution of the Society shall have effect and be observed as if the whole were repeated in the Articles.

We, the several persons whose signatures are subscribed to the Memorandum of Association, hereby agree to the foregoing Articles of Association.
