THE JUDGES PANEL OF
THE ARABIAN HORSE SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA LIMITED
SCHEDULE 1 – DEFINITIONS

- a) "The Society" means the Arabian Horse Society of Australia Limited.
- b) "The Board" means the Board of Directors of the Society.
- c) "Board Member" means a current Director of the Society.
- d) "Affiliate" means an incorporated group of people so recognised by the Board.
- e) "Society Rules" means the Society's current Rule Book.
- f) "The Panel" means the AHSA Panel of Judges of the Society.
- g) "Judges Executive Committee" means the National Judges Executive Committee of the Society as appointed by the Board (hereinafter called "J.E.C".)
- h) "Recognised Shows" The J.E.C. may compile and keep current from time to time a list of recognised Shows held in Australia and their appropriate Gradings as well as International Shows deemed by the J.E.C. to be International Title Shows.
- i) "Show Gradings" Recognised shows will be graded as to importance by the J.E.C. and Society. Until otherwise advised such show grading will consist of the following: AAA; AA; A and B show grading in decreasing order of importance.
- j) "Level One Probationary Judge" is a person who has passed the A.H.S.A. approved written and practical Assessment and is therefore so classified by the J.E.C. and approved by the Board, and is entitled to officiate alone at any recognised show with a show grading of 'B' (Non Titled) which he/she is invited to judge. All persons when first approved for classification as an A.H.S.A. Panel Judge shall first receive a Level One Probationary Judge status unless the Judge has previously qualified as an Arabian recognised Arabian Judges' Panel of another country, as recognised by the Society, or unless the Judge fulfils the requirements for entry to Level Two. Upon application (upgrade applications are dealt with annually at the August Board meeting), a Level One Probationary Judge may be considered for promotion to Level Two Judge status once he/she has satisfied the J.E.C. that he/she has gained sufficient experience and knowledge, has passed the full A.H.S.A. examination and meets all other requirements as laid out in the Judges Agreement. Level 1 Probationary Judges who have previously passed an examination prior to 1/9/2015 will be required to pass the new examination. Level One Probationary Judges are required to attend A.H.S.A. authorised workshops / seminars to further their knowledge. Please note that natural horsemanship courses, international guest speakers, farriers' courses etcetera do not qualify in this instance. Level One Probationary Judges are required to submit an annual Judges Return. As from 1/09/2015 there shall be a maximum time limit of 6 years at this level unless a longer period has been granted by the Board upon application. Failure to upgrade to Level 2 within 6 years will result in removal from the Level 1 Judge Panel unless exemption has been granted by the Board.
- k) "Level Two Judge" is a person so classified by the J.E.C. and approved by the Board, who has passed the full AHSA examination and has demonstrated sufficient knowledge and experience to be upgraded. 'Level Two Judges' are required to submit an annual Judges' Return. He/she is entitled to officiate alone at any recognised show with a grading of 'A' (Prestige), or 'B'(Non Titled), with the exception of State Royal Shows that he/she is invited to judge in Australia or New Zealand. It is strongly recommended that Level Two Judges attend A.H.S.A. authorised workshops / seminars to further their knowledge.
- l) "National Judge" is a person so classified by the J.E.C. and approved by the Board and is entitled to officiate alone at Show in Australia or New Zealand irrespective of show grading he/she is invited to judge, in the section of the schedule they are qualified for. National Panel Judge status may be awarded for Purebred Halter (PH), for Derivative Halter (DH) for Saddle/Performance (P), or two or all of these categories. Before admission to the National Panel for Halter, the Judge must undergo an assessment on the Numerical Scoring System as well as an observation practical assessment by a J.E.C. approved National Panel Judge / Examiner. National Panel Saddle/Performance Judges, unless on another approved Australian performance National judges panel, must undergo an observation practical assessment by a J.E.C. approved National Panel Judge / Examiner. All National Panel Judges will have officiated competently at Level Two status and have met all other requirements as laid out in the Judges Agreement prior to advancement to the National Panel.

JUDGES' INITIALS

A National Panel judge may be required to be accredited every three (3) years or as the JEC deems necessary. A National Panel judge must be a National Purebred Halter (PH) & Derivative Halter (DH) judge in order to fulfil the requirements to be eligible to advance to the International A or International B list of Judges. Any judge who has been suspended from the judging panel by the AHSA Board of Directors will be ineligible for inclusion on the International A or International B lists for Judges. A National Panel Performance (P) judge is able to officiate alone in the Performance Section only at any International Show, regardless of the grading, he/she is invited to judge provided that any National P list judge who has been suspended from judging by the AHSA Board of Directors will no longer be eligible to accept any International judging appointment. The JEC reserves the right to request feedback from any show organiser that any National panel judge has officiated for as an ongoing performance assessment evaluation tool.

- m) "International B-Level Judge" is a person so classified by the JEC and approved by the Board to be certified & licensed to officiate alone at any Australian or New Zealand show or any International show, excluding those shows listed by the AHSA on the official A list of International Title Shows, he/she is invited to judge in the section of the schedule for which they are qualified. Before admission to the International B Panel the Judge must be a resident of Australia. The judge must never have received a suspension from the AHSA judging panel, they must have been an active judge on the National Panel (PH) & (DH) or the equivalent from a WAHO recognised country for a minimum of three years & in this time successfully completed an AHSA certified & approved seminar on the numerical scoring system.

In order to advance to the International A list of accredited judges the International B Judge must either:

- i) complete & pass the A list advancement accreditation examination as set by the AHSA or
- ii) report any accepted international judging assignments to the JEC prior to the assignment show date so that a performance evaluation can be conducted. Following the successful completion and positive evaluation result from five (5) such international shows, the B list International judge is eligible for advancement to the International A list for accredited Judges.

Any International B-Level judge must apply to the JEC in writing to be considered as a candidate to be evaluated for the A list advancement examination. Any candidate unsuccessful in passing the International A list advancement accreditation examination must wait a minimum of two (2) calendar years before being eligible to apply to be re-examined. International accredited B list judges may be subject to reaccreditation every four (4) years or as the JEC deems necessary. The JEC reserves the right to utilise any International B list Judge's score sheets from any show that they have officiated at as an ongoing performance assessment evaluation tool.

- n) "International A-Level Judge" is a person so classified & accredited by the JEC and approved by the Board to be certified and licensed to officiate alone at any Australian or New Zealand show or any other International show including those on the AHSA list of International Title Shows he/she is invited to judge in the section of the schedule they are qualified for. Before admission to the International A panel the Judge must be a resident of Australia, the judge must never have received a suspension from the AHSA judging panel, the judge must be an active judge on the National (PH) & (DH) panel or the equivalent from a WAHO recognised country for a minimum of three years & and have successfully completed an AHSA certified and approved seminar on the numerical scoring system. In addition the judge must either:
- i) pass the A list advancement accreditation examination as set by the AHSA or
  - ii) report any accepted international judging assignments to the JEC prior to the assignment show date so that a performance evaluation can be conducted. Following the successful completion and positive evaluation result from five (5) such international shows, the B list International judge is eligible for advancement to the International A list for accredited Judges or
  - iii) must have judged any one of the listed Arabian International title shows within the last five years, as of 1st October 2015.

International accredited A list judges may be subject to reaccreditation every four (4) years or as the JEC deems necessary. The JEC reserves the right to utilise any International A list Judge's score sheets from any show that they have officiated at as an ongoing performance assessment evaluation tool.

THE JUDGES PANEL OF
THE ARABIAN HORSE SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA LIMITED
SCHEDULE 2 – RESPONSIBILITIES

JUDGES' RESPONSIBILITIES

- a) The Judge is to maintain current financial membership of the AHSA.
- b) The Judge shall complete and return an Annual Judge's Return in a form issued by the J.E.C. and returned by the date due as set by the J.E.C. or shall regularly maintain their personal Judges Profile page on the AHSA website.
- c) Judges should be correctly and neatly attired to suit the occasion. A Judge may remove a jacket in excessive heat and give permission to exhibitors to remove their jackets.
- d) Whilst judging classes the Judge will refrain from smoking, drinking alcohol or taking any substance that may impair the ability of the Judge to judge effectively.
- e) The use of mobile phones whilst judging is strictly prohibited.
- f) A judge must refrain from posting any comments on Social media regarding the Show, the horses, the competitors/exhibitors at any time during the show that they are officiating at,
- g) The Judge should report on the day of Show to the Show Manager or Secretary in good time before the commencement of Classes.
- h) If, after accepting a judging commitment a Judge is unable to meet such a commitment, the Judge shall communicate this to the Show Society immediately to allow the Show Society maximum time in which to seek a replacement. It must be accepted by Show Societies that occasionally, such exceptional circumstances may arise.
- i) The Judge shall attend at least one AHSA sanctioned Arabian Horse Seminar or Workshop every two years or participate in the Annual Judges Congress at least once every three years. Please note that natural horsemanship courses, international guest speakers not approved by the JEC, farriers courses etcetera do not qualify.
- j) The Judge shall officiate at shows, seminars and any other activities where he/she is representing the Panel, in an honorary capacity and may claim genuine out of pocket expenses and receipts should be provided to the Show Secretary/Event Official. Any further remuneration is discouraged as Show Societies are non-profit organizations and expenses should be kept to a minimum. It should be noted that Judges charging a "Judging Fee" may not be covered under the insurance of the Society as they are no longer acting in the capacity of volunteer. If such fees are charged, the Judge should submit his/her ABN to the Show Society. It is recommended that Judges use official "Judges Acceptance Sheets" to minimise any misunderstandings.
- k) The Judge will evaluate Arabian exhibits at shows in accordance with the Standard of Excellence published by the Society or such other Standards of Excellence as the Society may publish from time to time.
- l) The Judge will evaluate Arabian Derivatives and Performance exhibits in accordance with the Standard of Excellence published by the Society or such other Standards of Excellence as the Society may publish from time to time based upon the correct observance of points in the selection of the best horses or riders for the purpose described by the conditions of the class.
- m) Unless the Show's own Rules state otherwise, judging shall be by the comparative system.
- n) The Judge shall adjudicate each class at a show in conformity with the rules and specifications in that class in accordance with the rules of:
  - a. 1st – The Society's current Rule Book.
  - b. 2nd - The Relevant Show Society.
  - c. Should a conflict over a class ruling occur the resolution of such shall be: The Rules of the Relevant Show Society take precedence – failing this then the Society's current Rule Book. In the case of an Arabian Horse Society Affiliate show, the Rule Book of the Society shall take precedence.

JUDGES' INITIALS

- o) The Judge shall not advertise, solicit or canvass his/her judging services, broadcast or publicise their forthcoming judging appointments. Any judge found to be canvassing, advertising and/or soliciting his/her services or broadcasting or publicising their forthcoming appointments may be suspended from the AHSA Panel of Judges.
- p) The Judge has the authority to require the removal or alteration of any piece of equipment or accoutrement which, in his opinion, would give a horse an unfair advantage, or which may be, in his opinion, inhumane or unsafe. In such cases the horse is excused from the Ring to adjust or remove offending gear.
- q) At no time should a Judge interfere with a competitor's tack or gear in the ring nor will they touch the competitor.
- r) The JEC reserves the right to investigate and/or pursue at any time any alleged breaches of a Judges contract or their ethical behaviour. Further to this, the JEC reserves the right to act on any proven breach of the Judges Contract or unethical behaviour by a judge whereby the said judge may be suspended, downgraded or removed from the AHSA Judges panel.
- s) A Judge will not accept gifts, invitations or hospitality from competitors/exhibitors or be the guest of any competitor/exhibitor from the date of acceptance of a judging appointment nor should the Judge accept any other benefit that may bring into question the Judge's integrity or honesty. If the show concerned is a State Championships, AA Show, National Championships or any International show then a withholding period of three months (90 days) prior to the show will apply or from the date of acceptance of the appointment, whichever is period is longer. If any possible conflict should arise regarding gifts, invitations and/or remuneration etc received from a possible competitor/exhibitor then this must immediately be declared by the judge, in writing, to the JEC and to the Show Committee that the judge is officiating for. Failure by the Judge to declare any possible conflict may result in the judge being suspended, downgraded or removed from the AHSA judges panel.
- t) A Judge is the Official Guest of the Show Committee prior to the Show. A Judge shall not during the period of a Show at which he/she is judging, be the house guest of a person who is exhibiting at the Show in the Horse section. Many Shows are social occasions and organisers sometimes arrange social evenings during the course of the Show to which a Judge may be invited. Provided Judges use common sense and integrity they may attend such gatherings.
- u) The Judge will evaluate Arabian exhibits at shows in accordance with the Standard of Excellence published by the Society, or such other Standards of Excellence as the Society may publish from time to time.
- v) A Judge may not judge a section of a horse show which the Judge has judged in the past three (3) months within a radius of 50 kms or in any one zone of the greater Sydney region in one calendar year. {Please see Note for Greater Sydney region}
- w) No Judge may judge more than one AAA or AA class show within a State in the same section within a 12 month period.
- x) A Judge shall not adjudicate any class in which any of his/her clients are competing, unless, the client/pupil relationship has been terminated at least six (6) months prior to the show; nor should he/she judge a horse he/she has sold or leased to a client within the last six (6) months or twelve (12) months prior to the Australian Championships.
- y) A Judge shall not adjudicate any class in which an immediate member of his family or any of his horses is competing. He/she shall not adjudicate any class in which his trainer is competing unless the relationship has been terminated for at least three months prior to the show. The onus is on the Competitor to withdraw from the class.

NOTE: The greater Sydney region has now been split into 3 zones:

- Zone 1: North of the F4 Motorway and Parramatta Road and East of the Cumberland Highway, Pennant Hills Road & Sydney – Newcastle Freeway F3.
- Zone 2: North of the M4 Motorway and West of the Cumberland Highway, Pennant Hills Road & Sydney – Newcastle Freeway F3.
- Zone 3: South of the M4 Motorway and Parramatta Road.

THE JUDGES PANEL OF
THE ARABIAN HORSE SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA LIMITED
SCHEDULE 3 – PROTESTS, CHARGES, HEARINGS AND PENALTIES

PART 1 Filing and Contents

- a) The JEC reserves the right to investigate and/or pursue at any time any alleged breaches of a Judges contract or the Judge's ethical behaviour. Further to this, the JEC reserves the right to act upon any proven breach of the Judges contract or behaviour of the Judge that, in the opinion of the JEC, may be considered unethical. Subject to the investigation, the Judge may be suspended, downgraded or removed from the AHSA Panel of Judges.
- b) A protest concerning a member of the Panel may be made to the J.E.C. by a competitor, an exhibitor, an agent, a trainer or a parent of a junior exhibitor (defined as a person who has not reached his 18th birthday) for any breach of this Agreement by the Judge. It must be:
  - 1. in writing
  - 2. signed by the protester
  - 3. addressed to the Chairperson of the Judges Executive Committee
  - 4. received by the J.E.C. with ninety (90) days of the alleged breach.
- c) A charge may be made to the J.E.C. by an official of the Show, Board Member or Member of the Judges Panel for any breach of this Agreement by the Judge.
It must be:
  - 1. in writing
  - 2. signed by the person making the charge.
  - 3. addressed to the Chairperson of the Judges Executive Committee
  - 4. received by the J.E.C. within ninety (90) days of the alleged breach.
- d) A protest or charge must state the full name of the Judge, the event the alleged breach took place, the subject of the protest or charge and contain a complete and definitive statement of the acts which constitute the alleged breach. Precise details regarding a breach of this Agreement are necessary. The maker must state their full name and address and be prepared to substantiate the protest or charge by personal testimony at a hearing or by sworn statements, witness or other evidence.
- e) The Board may intervene at its discretion in any protest and present evidence concerning any protest or charge of the alleged breach.

PART 2 Non-Protestable Decisions

- a) A defect in conformation or action of a horse, when determined by an official veterinarian of the Show or by the Judge is not protestable.
- b) The Judge's decision representing his individual preference is not protestable unless it is alleged to be in breach of the Society's Rule.
- c) The Judge's decision made under the relevant Show Rules is not protestable.
- d) A protest with respect to the height of a horse may only be made to the Show Committee. The decision of the Show Committee shall not be reversible by the J.E.C.

JUDGES' INITIALS

PART 3 Hearings and Duties of The Judges Executive Committee

The J.E.C. may elect at its discretion to resolve a protest or charge by means of written evidence or responses only.

- a) Any Judge against whom a protest or charge is filed shall be entitled to a right of reply to the J.E.C. Notice of a protest or charge of alleged breach shall be given to the Judge within ninety (90) days from the date of the protest or charge of alleged breach is reported in writing to the J.E.C. The Judge then has thirty (30) days from the date of Notice to lodge his/her reply with the J.E.C.
- b) Every opportunity will be pursued to settle disputes by letter or submission with the option of a hearing before the J.E.C. or Board if the Board or the J.E.C. consider it necessary.
- c) Those Judges requesting a personal representation will be afforded this opportunity if the J.E.C. or the Board considers this feasible or necessary.
- d) The J.E.C. shall officiate protests and charges in connection with alleged breach of this Agreement in accord with the powers and duties referred to below:
  - 1) The J.E.C. shall give all parties a fair opportunity and act as authorised by the Board.
  - 2) The proponent of a protest or charge has the burden of proof.
  - 3) The record shall show each finding and conclusion.
  - 4) All decisions, including initial, recommended and final decision shall include a statement of findings and conclusions and the appropriate sanctions, relief or denial thereof.
  - 5) If a Judge, the subject of a protest or charge is a member of the J.E.C. he/she shall not sit at the relevant J.E.C. meeting nor take part in any resolution of the protest or charge.

PART 4 Breaches

- a) "Breaches" – A breach is any act prejudicial to the best interest of the Panel and/or the Society, including but not limited to the following:
  1. Breaches of the regulations and conditions of this Agreement.
  2. Breach of the Society's Rules.
  3. Acting or inciting or permitting any other person to act in a manner contrary to the regulations and conditions of this Agreement.
  4. Failure of the Judge to perform his/her duties at a show in accordance with the regulations and conditions of this Agreement or those conditions agreed with the Show Committee at the time of accepting the invitation to judge.

PART 5 –Penalties

If the protest or charge is upheld, the Judge, the subject of such protest or charge, shall be subject to such penalty as the J.E.C. may affirm including but not limited to:

- a) A notice of Censure may be listed under the Judge's name in the J.E.C.'s file of Panel Judges. If a further protest or charge is upheld in respect of the Judge he/she shall be subject to a heavier penalty than for the first offence.
- b) Suspension from the Panel for such period as determined by the J.E.C.
- c) Expulsion from the Panel in revocation of that Judge's appointment.
- d) Downgraded to a lower level on the AHSA Panel of Judges

PART 6 Appeals

If the Judge is dissatisfied with the finding of the J.E.C. in relation to any protest or charge concerning the Judge he/she may give notice in writing to the Board of his/her desire to have the finding and any penalty imposed on him/her in consequence thereof reviewed by the Board. The Board may, in its sole and unfettered discretion, determine whether to grant such a review and if so, then when and on what terms it will grant and conduct such review. The Board may substitute its penalty for any penalty imposed by the J.E.C. Such determination by the Board and any ruling or imposition of any penalty by it as a result of such review shall be final and binding on both the Judge and the J.E.C. and no further appeal shall lie against the same.

THE JUDGES PANEL OF
THE ARABIAN HORSE SOCIETY OF AUSTRALIA LIMITED
SCHEDULE 4 – DECLARATION OF CAPACITY FOR JUDGING

Accepting judging appointments on behalf of The Arabian Horse Society of Australia Limited (AHSA) is conditional on the Judge being suitable for the assignment and fully able to perform the inherent requirements for the position. When completing the health declaration you, as an AHSA Judge must do so in the full knowledge of the associated risks involving horses and ponies.

The primary purpose of this health declaration is to assist the AHSA to ensure that no person is placed in an environment or given tasks that will result in physical or mental harm. It is not the intention of the AHSA's health declaration to deny a person an assignment because of disability, illness or injury. The health declaration is required so that the AHSA may take the appropriate and reasonable action to ensure the Judge's health, safety and wellbeing.

You are required to disclose to the AHSA any pre-existing illness, disease, injury, ailment or condition that you have suffered or continue to suffer of which you are aware and which could have an effect on your judging capabilities.

Privacy:

The AHSA takes your privacy very seriously. All details provided to the Society are treated confidentially. The completed health declaration form will be retained on your personnel file, which is kept secure at all times. Where your judging status is altered, all documents relating to your health declaration will be retained for six months and then destroyed.

The AHSA may use the information in your health declaration for the purpose of assessing your suitability for judging assignments only should the need arise. Further, the Society may disclose that information to its legal advisers and/or insurance agents for the purpose of obtaining advice concerning your health declaration and any legal proceedings in which your health declaration is relevant.

Should any circumstances change that may affect your capacity to perform the inherent requirements of the position that you are undertaking, you are obliged to inform your Judge's Liaison officer as appointed by the Society.
