

Alfalfa is one of the most nutritionally complete foods in the human food chain. Rich in naturally occurring phytonutrients, it is a distillation of the best that sun and soil have to offer.

A generous portion of Alfalfa, one of nature's most sought-after plant foods, combined with NeoLife's own Custom Trace Mineral Blend provide unique and far reaching trace mineral ingredients from earth and sea sources. Fiber is added for those who wish to increase their daily intake.

Store in a cool, dry place, away from direct sunlight.

Packaged with safety seal.
