

Just 10 minutes from Flintfields, relax in our open-architecture studio quarters complete with tongue-and-grooved pine walls and ceiling. Warm and homey. New construct, be our first visitors! Share our premise with us, but not our home. Public Elk Lake access is 2 blocks down our private road. Accommodates 4 guests comfortably: Queen bed and trundle plus a large couch, Full bath, Very cute kitchenette with full stove and refrigerator. Our studio quarters are stocked with full linens and kitchen supplies for four. A new 55" TV with cable is yours to catch the local/national news and sports/movie channels.

Get lost in the beautiful, rolling farmlands between here and wherever your travels take you. The quaint town of Elk Rapids is just 10 minutes away and Traverse City is 20 minutes away. The secret is out! The area is well-known for dining, wineries, breweries, whisky houses, beaches, lakes, artists, farm markets and anything else one can obsess about! Casual and fine dining is close by and in abundance!

Our favorite cider house, settled in the middle of its source apple orchard, is just 5 minutes away and in the summer offers food trucks. Be it Great Lakes Equestrian, National Cherry, Harbor Days or Film...goodness knows we have our festivals! We have a nice directory for your reference.

Rates are $225/night. Let's talk about longer-term arrangements.
