What other points does this body image convey (verses 14-20)?

In what way did the Corinthians not appreciate the gifts of other believers?

Why do you think Paul address divisions in the church here in this chapter? Why is it important that believers be united and connected to each other in community?

In what way does our unity bring honor to God?

How are you personally doing in connecting with other believers?

What do you think is the essence of “connecting”?
