Getting Started

What do you enjoy more: a good book or a movie based on that book? Why? What is more important: the characters or the actor or actress playing the characters?

In most instances, it's the story that makes a book or movie captivating. How would God's Word be reviewed by book readers across the world? Why?

What texts in God's Word have been the most nutritious food for your personal life? What about for our church? How about for a ministry you've been serving in?

Bringing It Home

How have you seen human words maximized and God's Word minimized in some churches? Have you seen that in our church or amongst our leadership? How might there be danger in this?

How does emphasizing God's Word as the authority in your life change your leadership among God's people?

What are some ways you are seeing God's Word at work in your life? This group? Our church?

How well is our church's theology aligned with the Bible? What about our methodology?

What practical steps can you personally, and our church, take to demonstrate greater trust in the sufficiency of God's Word?

Spend some time praying as a group to conform more and more to God's Word. Pray that the church as a whole will trust in God's Word.
