Welcome to Our Worship

Sunday Morning Message: The Practice of Righteousness—Part 2
Sunday Evening Message: Facing the Tests in Life

What about Worship!

Facebook must know my algorithm! When scanning through Facebook it started to bring up different worship services. It must notice that I pay attention to different congregations' streams. Not only did it bring up different congregations of the church of Christ, but it brought up services from the denominational world. When scanning through a couple of denominational services they seemed very entertaining. With both services the goal seemed to be to get the audience excited and entertain them. Once they were both excited and entertained it was time for the offering.

We know that the central purpose of any congregation of God's people is to publicly gather to offer worship and praise to the living and true God. Our highest concern must be that our worship be acceptable and pleasing to God. The history of God's people, both in the biblical record and since the time of Christ, has shown that there is no area of the church's life which is more prone to corruption than its worship.

The Bible makes it clear that God has not left His worship open to the inventions and devices of men. God alone has the prerogative to determine how He should be worshiped. The Bible tells us in several passages about worship. Leviticus 10:1-2 (ESV) ¹ Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it and laid incense on it and offered unauthorized fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them. ² And fire came out from before the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

When we come to worship it is for the purpose of worshiping our God. We need to search the scripture to see what is good and acceptable to our God. We come together to worship and praise God not to entertain and excite the congregation. The famous words to the song, "Oh Worship the King all Glorious Above!" Let us look to scripture to learn how to worship our God. Our God wants to be worshipped and He lets us know how.

For His Glory—Elvis Galbreath

- † Please remember Kim Fought, Sandy Bungard's brother in your prayers.
- † Karen Metz is still recovering from her fall. It was good to see her at worship Sunday.
- † Ruth Lemon is still struggling with trembling spells. She is having Physical Therapy to help with them. Please pray that they go away.
- † Helen and Wes McIntyre can both use your prayers at this time.
- † Please pray for Anne's friend Lori's father and brother-inlaw. Robert Wright and Ron Sams are both battling cancer.
- Oakley's numbers are reacting well with the steroids. She is going back on the continuous mandatory ventilation (CMV). The plan is for her to go home sometime this weekend.
- † Ronda's brother-in-law was unable to have the heartcath. They are still waiting to schedule the open-heart sur gery.
- † Patty Vaughan has asked for prayers.
- † Please continue to prayer for Danny Carpenter as he recovers from his stroke and fall.
- † Bill Spears is having trouble with his feet swelling.
- Violet Farley is very ill and she has been in the hospital for many weeks, she may be moved to Belpre Landing soon. She is a customer of Joyce Parsons.
