100-Word Product Description	Extreme Performance CPU Cooling Have a PC case that supports a top-mounted 240mm radiator? Take your CPU cooling to a new level. H100i offers twice the radiator surface area of the H80i for even better performance. Corsair Link Monitoring and Control Monitor temperature and control lighting and fan speed on your screen. No additional hardware is necessary. Dual Radiator with Custom Fan Design The 240mm top-mounted radiator provides maximum surface area for maximum cooling power. The 120mm fans use wide, low-pitch blades for better static pressure to noise ratio, offering improved efficiency at lower noise levels.
Product Features	NOTE: The Corsair Hydro Series™ H100i requires a case that is compatible with 240mm length radiators, like many of the Corsair Obsidian™, Graphite™, Vengeance™ or Carbide™ series cases. • Dual length 240mm radiator for increased surface area and cooling potential. • Integrated Corsair Link™ functionality allows you to adjust fan speed profiles and lighting, and monitor coolant temp via the free Corsair Link Dashboard software download.
