Play Catalog

Early childhood educational toys,
books and instruments that inspire creative thinking.

Welcome to the Experience Play Catalog

Our Commitment

To provide the highest quality educational toys that inspire creative thinking and support a child's social-emotional, physical and cognitive development.

Our Checklist for Choosing a Toy

The toys found in this unique Play Catalog must meet these teacher-approved standards:

- Be safe for our children
- Be respectful of diverse people and cultures
- Be durable, washable and reusable
- Be beautiful
- Be good for our earth (green or eco-friendly)
- Reinforce important school-readiness skills
- Leave room for the child's own imagination

Experience Play with your children. "You can discover more about a person in an hour of play than in a year of conversation. Life must be lived as play."

Plato - Greek Philosopher

Due to the popularity and availability of some resources, Toy Box contents may vary. Toy substitutions will be of equal or greater value.

Create a Lending Library

Share the Joy! Use our theme-based Toy Boxes to create your own lending library system. Now children can learn through play at school and at home.

Four Easy Steps

- 1. Choose a Toy: Hang a name tag for each child on a board. Invite children to pick out one toy from the Toy Box that they would like to borrow. Then, find the matching photo card and tack it next to their name tag.
- 2. Pack the Toy in the Bag: Purchase one Lending Library backpack for each child. Put the chosen toy and its corresponding Activity Card inside the backpack.
- 3. Borrow the Toy: Children wear the backpack home and play with their family. Parents read the activity card for playtime ideas.
- 4. Return the Toy: When the child returns the toy, replace the toy photo card next to his/her name tag with the new toy choice.

Toy Box Activity Cards

Toy Boxes include activity cards to inspire play and link directly with our skill-based curriculum. Below is an example and how to use them.
