Quality Home Leisure Products
Winter 2006

At NorthlineExpress,

we did things a little out of order – first the Internet, then bricks and mortar, and now a printed catalog.

When we started in 1994, we hit the Internet with northlineexpress.com. I was interested in the technology and knew that we could keep costs down for our customers and ourselves with an Internet business. And let’s not forget the best part: we could reach customers while continuing to live and work in our lovely neck of the woods: Roscommon, Michigan.

In northern Michigan, we are the destination of many who are looking for recreation and leisure. People have their cabins here. Vacationers look forward to getting “up north.” Those of us who live here throughout the year love nature, smaller towns, shorter commutes, and perhaps a little fishing and grilling.

Because of this, we understand quality home leisure products. We put them to the test. From the start, we’ve believed in offering only the products that we would use ourselves – at a fair price – and guaranteeing them 100%.

The success of our website was overwhelming – in a great, only-in-our-wildest-dreams kind of way. With customers around the world, we’ve made a lot of new friends.

Soon we needed a bigger warehouse. Done. And if we had a nice warehouse, why not open a retail store at the same location? People have liked stopping in to visit us at the shop.

Then customers asked for a printed catalog – something they could curl up in bed with, read on the train into work, or show to a neighbor or coworker. This started us making lists of pros and cons. We didn’t have significant reasons why we shouldn’t do it, so here is our first catalog. (See the “Top Ten Reasons” why we decided to go for it.)

We’ve always grown our business by giving you more than you expected – by going the extra mile. Throughout this catalog, look for tips and useful information. We think you’ll want to save this catalog for reference, for gift ideas, and to order from now and then.

We thank you if you’ve been our customer in the past – and look forward to pleasantly surprising you if you haven’t ordered yet.

Sincerely,

 Robert Cochran

Our success is based on your satisfaction!

Top Ten Reasons Why We’ve Added a Printed Catalog

10. Because it’s easier to get through airport security than a laptop computer. It also gives you something good to read in flight. And you can use it to cover your face if you must sleep overnight in the terminal.
  9. Because you want your friends and neighbors to know you’re a satisfied NorthlineExpress customer. Place it on your coffee table with pride!
  8. Because it’s easier to put sticky notes on, dog-ear the pages, or circle items with a big black permanent marker. (Don’t try this with your boss’ computer monitor!)
  7. Because Great-Uncle George, who still can’t understand those “new fangled” VCR tapes, also doesn’t get this “Inter-ness” thing (much less cable!). As a result, he considers us “loafers” and “slackers” and tells this to everyone he meets. This catalog shows him that we really do sell hundreds of useful things – making us valuable contributors to society!
  6. Because we understand not everyone can plan a visit to our northern Michigan location. (But you should!)
  5. Because we didn’t want to be responsible for sand in your keyboard while you’re on vacation at the beach. (And flipping through our catalog is a much better “read” than most romance novels.)
  4. Because you can insert notations (such as, “This is exactly what I’d want!”) next to key items. Then leave it in a conspicuous place before holidays or your birthday.
  3. Because we knew we hadn’t yet reached every potential NorthlineExpress fan. (We didn’t want to discriminate against those without a reliable Internet connection.)
  2. Because we could. (Thanks to our talented staff!)
- And the number-one reason (drum roll)...
1. Because we knew you’d like it.*

For Good Measure: Covering All the Dimensions

What Type of Fireplace Do You Have?

There are two types of fireplaces: masonry (brick and mortar) or metal prefabricated fireplaces, called zero-clearance fireplaces. If you look inside your fireplace and see bricks with a brick chimney, then you have a masonry fireplace. If what you see is a metal box (some may have a firebrick lining) and a metal pipe for a chimney, then you have a zero-clearance fireplace.

Masonry Fireplaces

Be sure to take all measurements to the nearest 1/16" using a steel tape measure. Note any irregularities around the opening of the fireplace, such as projecting or recessed brick. For complex custom applications, a photograph of the fireplace will prove very helpful.

Overlap-Fit Enclosures

"Overlap fit" is when the enclosure is larger than the opening of the fireplace. Measure the width of the opening at the top and again at the bottom. We need the minimum and maximum widths. See Figure 1.

Next, measure the height of the opening from the hearth (where the enclosure will sit) to the brick, marble, slate, etc. Please let us know if you have a hearth extension or a raised firebox.

Inside-Fit Enclosures

"Inside fit" is when the enclosure is smaller than the opening of the fireplace. Measure the width of the opening at the top and again at the bottom. We need the minimum width. See Figure 1.

Next, measure the height of the opening from the hearth (where the enclosure will sit) to either the bottom of the lintel (the horizontal beam used in the construction of your fireplace, which may be made out of steel) or the bottom of the finishing material (brick, marble, etc.). See Figure 2.

Width

Measure width at the top and the bottom of the opening. Remember to allow enough clearance for the enclosure to fit into the smallest width dimension. If the gaps become excessive (as in a stone fireplace), it may be necessary to mortar in the enclosure.

Height

Measure height from the left and right side of the opening. Remember to allow enough clearance for the enclosure to fit into the smallest height dimension. We must know the distance from the front of the fireplace to the front of the lintel bar before we can begin your ordering process. See Figure 2.

Stone Fireplaces

If the stone is smooth enough, you can overlap or inside fit as described. Most of the time, however, the enclosure will need to be mortared in. We do offer solutions to help this process. It is usually best to select a smaller size enclosure (smaller than the opening) and mortar in from the sides – rather than overlapping and trying to mortar behind the side panels. But this also tends to give the appearance of a concrete box in front of the fireplace with an enclosure up against it – rather than the "built-in" look.

The best person to select the size of enclosure for a rough stone fireplace is the person who will be installing it. When you order an enclosure for a rough stone fireplace, simply indicate "stone" and provide us with the outside frame dimensions you need.

Zero-Clearance Fireplaces

You will need to locate the metal tag inside the fireplace that has the manufacturer and model number on it. This will help us determine which new door is right for you.

This information is usually located high on the inside wall of the fireplace – above the refractory panels or behind the mesh curtain on the inset return.

Do not measure the finish material in front of the fireplace: brick, stone, marble, slate, tile, etc. We will manufacture the enclosure based on the fireplace opening dimensions you provide.

LOG RACKS

Cover the Whole Stack with Heavy-Duty Log Racks and Covers

Our log racks will save you time and money. Firewood that is left on the ground or uncovered will rot, attract bugs and rodents, and create an eyesore. The WoodEze™ log racks will solve all of these problems. By getting your firewood off the ground, you allow air to circulate and cure the wood for burning. Cured firewood burns more completely and is better for your chimney. Made of black canvas, the cover keeps the rain and snow out, yet lets the air circulate so your wood is ready to burn at a moment's notice. The 36" log rack holds an eighth of a cord of firewood. The 144" log rack holds more than three-quarters of a cord and has a center support. Bolts together in just minutes.

How Did You Ever Get Along Without It?

The Backsaver wood tote makes carrying and loading firewood easier. With your Backsaver tote loaded, you'll feel how much easier it is to walk and carry that heavy load – because most of the weight is carried on your shoulders. Made of double-stitched, 200-lb. nylon polyester that is rot- and mildew-proof. Keeps your clothing cleaner, too! Available in black with taupe trim or black with green trim (please specify).
5CN-9-09-10 $33.90

STACK•IT Brackets

Four heavy-duty steel corner brackets let you build storage racks, shelves, and work tops in any convenient size from two-by-four lumber. Stack•It Brackets have a unique design and keep your valuable firewood up to 5" above ground level – safe from harmful ground moisture, pests, and decay.

Select the length you desire, and add the brackets. You're done...it's that easy! Lumber not included. Add screws or nails in the pre-drilled bracket holes for added stability.

Rx for Your Flue

Where there's fire, there's smoke. But when that fire is in your home, make sure the smoke is safely vented outside. If your fireplace is a "heavy smoker," it's time for a diagnosis.

First, you may not have opened your damper. Check to see that it is completely open.

The next culprit could be a drafting problem. Poor drafting can be caused by a number of things – most often the flue. The flue is a passageway that runs from the fireplace opening (usually at the top of the inside of the fireplace), through the chimney, to the outside air.

Think of your home as a living, breathing creature. The older your home is, the more it "breathes"; the newer, the less it breathes. Breathing refers to the air pressure inside your home, compared to the air pressure outside. (Did you know that home renovations can also affect this pressure?)

If the air pressure inside your home is greater, the fireplace will push the gases out of your home. But if the air pressure in your home is less than outside, the smoke will hit an air pressure "wall" and begin pouring back into your home.

This can cause major damage to your home and can be very harmful to your family. Smoke contains soot (or carbon), which can stain your walls. And if you have smoke coming into your home, then you have carbon monoxide, which can be deadly.

Flue Wellness

If your flue seems to be sickly, there are some minor fixes. First, the flue could be clogged with a nest. Animals like birds, bees, raccoons, and squirrels like chimney flues. You could also have creosote buildup or another type of blockage.

When was the last time that your chimney had an "annual physical"? Just like its human counterparts, a chimney should be cleaned and inspected between every season. Call a professional chimney sweep or order some NorthlineExpress chimney cleaning supplies and get busy.

This will help maintain efficiency, keep hazardous creosote from building up, reduce the chance of a dangerous chimney fire, and reduce smells in the off-season. Creosote and soot that accumulate on the chimney walls reduce the draft needed by the fireplace. Reducing the draft may cause smoke to come into the home. On top of this problem, creosote is flammable and can easily fuel a chimney fire.

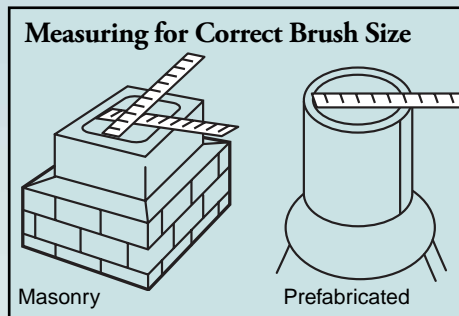

Methodical cleaning through the heating season – combined with the proper burning of fuel and the systematic use of effective creosote and soot inhibitors – provides the best solution for trouble-free performance. And remember, if a chimney fire has occurred, have your chimney thoroughly inspected by a certified professional before attempting to use it again.

If a good cleaning doesn't seem to improve things, perhaps the flue is the wrong size for your situation. A professional can help you determine if this or other more-intensive treatments are needed.

Chimney Hygiene Tips

There is no "standard" fireplace chimney. To properly clean and maintain your chimney, you will have to measure the inner dimensions to properly size the chimney brush you'll need.

Use caution when climbing onto the roof. Measure your chimney carefully to determine the correct brush size to select. Carefully measure the inside of the chimney tile or prefabricated chimney diameter (see diagram).

Note: An oversized brush will not improve the cleaning action and could become lodged in the chimney. An undersized brush will not provide enough pressure on the walls for proper cleaning.

While you're up on the chimney, you might as well install a chimney cap. A cap keeps the animals, leaves, rain, and snow from damaging your chimney. That's sound preventative medicine!

Take Your Chimney's Health Seriously

Don't rely on our suggestions alone (we're not real doctors, after all). Make sure your chimney is cleaned every year – as a do-it-yourself project or by the professionals. Carbon monoxide and chimney fires are serious business. Educate yourself on how your fireplace or wood stove works, how it is vented, and what steps you need to take to keep you, your family, and your home safe.

Remember: fire is good, safety is better!

Chimney Cleaning Kits

Chimney cleaning kits contain all the essential equipment necessary for the do-it-yourself homeowner to thoroughly clean a chimney.

Kits include:

- Six 45" fiberglass rods (1/4" NPT)
- Wire brush
- 25' rope
- Pull ring

Fiberglass Rods

These rods do not have a lot of bend in them. The 5RU-10624 rods will flex up to 90° to allow you to enter the flue through most fireplaces, but they will not go through a 45° elbow in the flue. The 5RU-59F-4 rods do not have much flex at all. They are good for straight flues with heavy creosote buildup requiring strength for pushing through.

48" Fiberglass Chimney Brush Rod, 1/4" NPT, .350 Dia. rod
5RU-10624 $7.71

48" Heavy-Duty Chimney Brush Rod, 3/8" NPT, .440 Dia. rod
5RU-59F-4 $12.52

Super-Flexible Nylon Rods

Super-flexible rods are used in chimneys with tight bends present. These rods will bend 90° or more. Due to the extreme flexibility and thin rod diameter, they may become too flexible in long chimney runs. They are best used when the bend is at the end of the chimney and can be used in combination with other styles of rods.

Amazing Results

Liquid Creosote

Remover for airtight stoves is a pre-mixed "professional strength" liquid formulation. Changes creosote to ash with daily spraying. Spray wood and firebox liberally then light the fire. Makes periodic thorough chimney cleaning easier. Safe, cannot be overused.

Quart Spray 5RU-97L $10.41
Gallon Refill 5RU-98L $26.55

Soot Sweep Soot Remover

for free-burning stoves. A combustion catalyst for fireplaces and non-airtight stoves. Soot Sweep powder helps get more heat from wood while reducing dangerous soot and creosote buildup. Does not contain any corrosive rock salt. Makes chimney cleaning easier and reduces chimney fire danger.

2-lb. Container 5RU-100B $5.79

KWIK-SHOT

helps keep soot out of your chimney. For free-burning stoves. This easy-to-use toss-in stick controls soot and creosote buildup conveniently. Just place a KWIK-SHOT soot stopper stick on your fire, no measuring or mess. Makes colorful flames, too!

3-oz. Tube 5RU-100S $1.69
Buy 36 or more and save 20 cents per stick.

Flue-Renew Fire Logs

contain a proprietary chimney cleaner that modifies soot and creosote in the chimney. Flue-Renew fire logs, used once a month in the fire, change the creosote into a dry, loose, non-adhering deposit that flakes away and is more easily brushed off.

3 Logs per Box 5RU-00303 $19.70
9 Logs per Box 5RU-00903 $62.25

Firebricks

Use to build a new firebox or to replace broken firebrick in wood stoves or fireplaces. Service temperature of 2200°F meets ASTM C-20, C-16, C-113, C-38, and C-133. Each brick measures 9" L x 4-1/2" W x 1-1/4" H.

Box of 6 Firebricks 5RU-604-6 $26.90

Fireplace Mortar

Formulated especially to patch fireplace fireboxes and for bonding firebrick to firebrick. Fireplace mortar is a silicate product that, when fire-cured, sets rock hard — as strong as firebrick itself. Comes in a convenient cartridge for easy re-pointing of fireplace brick. Apply with caulking gun. Colors match most mortars. Withstands 2000°F. Not for exterior use. 10.3-oz. cartridge.

Black Fireplace Mortar 5RU-63BK $3.99
 Gray Fireplace Mortar 5RU-63G $3.99
 Buff Fireplace Mortar 5RU-63BF $3.99

Chimney Masonry Patch

For use on exterior masonry, mastic patching cement comes in a convenient cartridge for easy re-pointing. Natural concrete color. Repairs broken mortar in chimneys, steps, sills, sidewalks, and foundations. Anywhere a concrete or mortar repair is needed. Non-freezing formula can be applied down to 0°F if cartridge is warmed. Apply with caulking gun. 10.3-oz. cartridge.

Chimney Masonry Patch (Natural) 5RU-89 $4.69

Furnace Cement

The benchmark furnace cement for 50+ years. Rutland furnace cement is a ready-mixed silicate cement that withstands temperatures over 2000°F without failure. Its non-gritty formula feathers very thin to make metal-to-metal joints smoke- and gastight. For installation and service of furnaces, stokers, and oil or coal ash pit doors. Also for small wood stove repairs. Non-asbestos. Color is black and comes in a 1-qt. container.

Furnace Cement (Black) 5RU-65 $6.79

Use Chimney Sweep furnace cement to repair and reset wood/coal stoves, flues, and fireplaces. Heavy consistency that withstands 2700°F. A ready-mixed, all-purpose, high-temperature-resistant cement that seals joints and cracks in metal and fills gaps between masonry and metal. Prevents air and gas leaks in flue and chimney joints, ash pit doors and gasketing, etc. Color is gray and comes in a 1-qt. container.

Furnace Cement (Gray) 5RU-FSC32 $5.59

Fireplace Insert Insulation

Ten-foot, 1-1/2"-wide, self-adhesive strip insulation forms a smoke- and gastight seal between fireplace insert and existing masonry. To obtain best stove performance, replace insulation each time insert is removed for cleaning. Also can be used to seal fireplace doors to the fireplace.

10' Fireplace Insert Insulation 5RU-105 $10.29

Replacement Stove Gaskets

Replace worn or burnt-out gaskets on airtight wood stoves, heating appliances, furnaces, and fireplace inserts. Manufactured from textured fiberglass for high-temperature sealing qualities. Black graphite impregnated fiberglass looks better while resisting sticking and creosote buildup. They are both soft and flexible and can be used in almost any gasket application. Special manufacturing makes them easy to handle in applications where they are cut or fabricated. Seal lasts longer and efficiency is increased. Greater abrasion-resistance than untreated fiberglass gasketing. Enough gasket for the average airtight stove.

Stove & Gasket Cement

Stove and gasket cement is a black silicate-ceramic-type stove cement. Adheres all types of gasket materials to airtight stoves. Cements cracks in metal. Bonds metal to metal and fiberglass gaskets to metal. Withstands temperatures to 2000°F.

3-oz. Tube 5RU-77 $3.69
 10.3-oz. Cartridge 5RU-78 $8.99

High-Heat RTV Silicone

Rutland 500° RTV high-heat silicone sealant, a specially formulated RTV silicone combining flexibility with high heat-resistance, forms a tough rubbery seal. Keeps its flexibility even at temperatures of 450°F continuously or 500°F intermittently. Seal around insulated chimney caps and storm collars, fireplace inserts, gas stoves, and glass fireplace screens. Make solar panel repairs and some automotive seals.

May be used anywhere a black or translucent permanent elastic seal is needed. Will adhere to glass, metal, most plastics, fiberglass, aluminum, wood, brick, and slate.

A Hot Performer

Monitor your stove's performance with this stove thermometer that magnetically attaches to your stove's top, door, or flue pipe — showing at a glance if the stove is operating within an efficient burning range. Indicates overheating or a low-temperature creosote buildup hazard. Attractive baked enamel face. Safety wire is included.

Magnetic Stove Thermometer 5RU-701 $14.90

1200°F Brush-On Stove Paint

This brush-on stove paint is a specially formulated flat-black paint that resists peeling and blistering when subjected to temperatures up to 1200°F. Renews and protects the finish on steel or cast-iron stoves, ovens, grills, and cookers. Non-graying and colorfast. It dries very quickly to an even flat-black finish.

 Note: Paint must be shipped by UPS Ground. Sorry, no air shipments and NO SHIPPING TO ALASKA OR HAWAII.
 1-qt. Flat Black 5RU-81Q $18.90

Replace Your Sad, Worn-Out Dump

Replace that old or missing fireplace ash dump with a happy new one. Made of cast-iron with a matte-black finish. This cast-iron ash dump will provide years of use. Outside dimensions 5-3/8" x 9-1/2", opening dimensions 4-1/2" x 8-1/2", and door dimensions 4" x 8-1/2".

Cap It! with High Style

There are many different styles of chimney flues, but for most applications there are these four common styles:

Single-Flue Chimneys with Extended Flues. The most common, these chimneys have flues that extend out of the chimney, allowing you to attach your chimney cap with screws that tighten to the ceramic or clay flue. You will need to measure the width and length of the outside dimensions of the flue to get a proper fit.

Single-Flue Chimneys Without Extended Flues. These chimneys do not extend (they are flush with the crown or chimney top) and will require you to use a leg kit or bracket that will extend down into the flue and grip or bolt to the sides. Leg kits are good for easy installation and for low-wind areas, but they will not hold up in high-wind areas. For these areas, you will want to use the more-secure brackets. You will need to measure the width and length of the opening itself. Caps with screws on the outside will still work well, even though you are fitting them to the inside opening of the flue. You will need to measure the inside dimensions of the flue opening (length and width) and order the corresponding leg kit or brackets.

Multi-Flue Chimneys with or Without Extended Flues. In this application, the extended flue does not matter. With or without the flue extending, you will need to measure the total outside width and length of the combined flues, as well as how high the highest one extends out of the chimney (where applicable). You will need to then choose caps that will not only cover the flues but also fit your chimney and clear the top of the flues with the lid. The screen height is very important since you are mounting this to the chimney crown. You want at least five inches of clearance from the top of the flue to the top of the cap to provide a proper draft.

Double-Wall Solid-Pack Insulated Chimney Pipe and Double-Wall or Triple-Wall Air-Insulated Chimney Pipe. First measure the diameter of the inner pipe. Next measure the diameter of the outer pipe. If you are working with triple-wall, you can ignore the middle pipe. The inner diameter is the measurement used to order the cap. The outer pipe needs to be covered to keep out rain, however it does not hurt if the outer pipe is overlapped by the cap. As long as the outer diameter pipe is covered, rain cannot get in.

European Copper Chimney Pots

Sure, you have probably noticed chimney caps on homes in your area. Perhaps you have one yourself. But until now, contemporary chimney caps have paid more attention to practical value than to aesthetics. European copper chimney pots change all that with their stunning beauty. This is the only chimney cap you will ever need. Enhance the architecture, appearance, and safety of your home. Made of 100% copper and stainless steel, they feature a lifetime warranty. In addition, they provide excellent rain protection, deter pests, assist in chimney draft, and serve as a spark arrester. They are rustproof and, other than a yearly inspection, require no maintenance. By combining supreme beauty with practical value, your European copper chimney pot will set your home apart. The vents at the base of these copper pots actually assist draft. They are much easier to install than traditional clay pots. These pots mount easily and quickly to the crown of the chimney (masonry only) with brackets that even allow you to make leveling adjustments. Chimney pots ship by common carrier.† You must be present to accept delivery.

Weathershield® Stainless-Steel Chimney Caps

Solid-Pack Chimney Cap

Air-Insulated Chimney Cap

Weathershield chimney caps for solid-pack and air-insulated chimneys are a universal replacement for the standard spark arresters and rain caps that come with Class A chimney systems. Standard caps often don't hold up for long, and you are faced with the need to replace them.

These Weathershield caps will get the job done. A tight, friction-fit installation allows the Weathershield caps to slip down inside the chimney, ensuring a tight fit on virtually any brand of Class A chimney.

The EXHAUSTO Fan Sucks – But It's Supposed To

Cure drafting problems in fireplaces, stoves, BBQs, water heaters, etc., using wood, gas, oil, coal, or pellets. The Exhausto fan mounts outside, atop the chimney, where it literally sucks the smoke from the flue. Its motor is completely enclosed and maintenance-free, with air-cooled, pre-lubricated, sealed ball bearings. It comes with a pre-wired junction box, a fan-speed control, and a bird screen. It is designed for minimum energy consumption, using about as much energy as a regular lightbulb. The Exhausto fan is made of cast-aluminum and stainless steel. It comes with a two-year factory warranty against defects in material and workmanship, a 10-year warranty against corrosion, and a six-month money-back guarantee. Do you have a Class A chimney with a draft problem? We have Exhausto fan adapters to fit most applications. Call us or visit us online to ensure proper sizing.

Note: Before installing, check local codes and have the 110V wiring installed by a certified electrician.

Tjernlund Auto-Draft Draft Inducer

Draft inducers increase the airflow up the chimney, preventing smoke from leaking out of pipes, seams, or doors. The Tjernlund draft inducer is specifically designed for freestanding wood and coal stoves with severe draft problems and for installation in single-wall black pipe. Installation involves cutting a slot into the black pipe, and then mounting the fan on the pipe. Fits 5", 6", 7", and 8"-diameter stovepipe. Operates on standard 110VAC. Not for use with fireplaces that have double- or triple-wall pipe.

Extend Your Summer

With the days getting shorter, the early mornings and evenings can get a wee bit nippy. We have a way for you to control Mother Nature – or at least make her more hospitable. Extend your patio and backyard enjoyment with an outdoor patio heater or fire pit. While they won't turn the dead of winter into a summer day, the added warmth will help you lengthen summer – as well as make spring come a little sooner. For those of you in warmer climates, use these year-round to take the edge off the evening chill.

Form & Function

When accenting your backyard, color and shape can be two of the most important details. This round fire pit features an aluminum finish with a heavy-gauge wrought-iron base. The 360° visibility makes this fire pit a wonderful option for outdoor events. Mesh surrounds the fire pit for spark protection. Made of aluminum, the top and bowl will never rust, ensuring years of use. Measures 33" H x 23.5" Dia. 5WT-MMTBM500-D $199.90

Napoleon® Direct-Vent Gas Fireplace Insert (Model GDIZC)

Turn your existing masonry or pre-manufactured fireplace into an energy-saving centerpiece for you and your family to enjoy year after year. Your new gas fireplace is heater rated and has a steady-state efficiency of up to 85%. It's one of the most efficient gas inserts available on the market. The unit comes standard with a thermostatic/variable-speed blower system, which allows proper circulation of the created heat. Since this is a direct-vent unit, the fireplace utilizes two 3" aluminum liners. This prevents your home's pre-existing heat from being used up unconventionally. One vent brings in combustible air, while the other vent exhausts out consumed fuel. The gas controls are easily accessible and user-friendly to prevent stooping. The piezo push-button igniter requires no electricity, so this insert will keep you warm even during power outages. This item ships by common carrier.† You must be present to accept delivery. Additional shipping charges may apply.

Choosing the Right Gas Logs

Not sure what type of logs you need? We can help. Gas logs come in two basic varieties: vented log sets and vent-free log sets.

- Vented gas logs must be used in a regular fireplace designed to burn a wood fire – and run with the flue damper open to vent the gas fumes up the chimney. Vented log sets are realistic-looking and provide about the same amount of heat as a real wood fire.
- Vent-free gas logs can be used in a regular fireplace – operating with the damper closed – or in a prefabricated vent-free firebox that has no chimney. If you are expecting to heat a portion of your home or are looking for a good backup heat source, consider one of our vent-free models.

Are you tired of the mess and hassle of a wood fire – or looking for a way to get more heat from your fireplace?

Massive Oak log set includes refractory cement-style logs, 5/8" heavy-duty grate, 18" gas connector and fittings, built-in accent burner, extra-large ember bed, damper clamp, lava rock, vermiculite, and rock wool embers.

Propane conversion kits are available.

Check local codes and ordinances for permitted uses. For example, vent-free appliances are illegal in Minnesota and Canada.

Replacement Fireplace Screens

Our fireplace screen panels easily install on existing fireplace enclosures. These screens are built to last. They feature heavy-duty wire woven into interlocking spiral panels. The panels are finished with a rust-preventative, high-temperature, black enamel and include cool-grip handles. They are available in 1" height increments from 16" to 36" (please specify) and will fit most fireplace openings. Each package includes two panels (rod kit sold separately), which will expand to a maximum of 24" per panel. Custom sizes available – please call us and we would be happy to get you just the right fit. NOTE: Overall height is 1/2" higher than panel height listed; an 18" panel with rings hangs 18-1/2" from the mesh rod (sold below).

35" to 36" H x 48" w	5CN-9-35 to -36	$54.80

Replacement Screen Rod Kit

Our rod kit lets you install a hanging fireplace screen in almost any fireplace. The kit consists of two rods and a bracket for mounting the kit. The rods can be installed under the upper fireplace opening or behind the fireplace opening. The kit requires some cutting and bending to make it fit, so handyman skills and tools are required (hardware not included). Rod kit includes two 3/16" Dia. x 32" L rods and mounting brackets. Combined, rods will extend to a maximum length of 58".

The Hottest Thing Since ... Fire!

American Fireglass — the Gas Log Alternative

It's the hottest thing — and the coolest — at the same time! Replace those old gas logs with American Fireglass, and put intrigue and magic in your natural gas fireplace. Stop guests in their tracks with a truly unique look that is sure to be the center of attention.

Whether your decor is contemporary, classic, rustic, eclectic, or somewhere in between, American Fireglass provides uncompromising versatility. The multitude of colors and size options allows you to create your own custom look. You can change colors any time you want and even save special color combinations for holidays and parties.

The glass is tempered for long-term heat consumption. Thanks to the process used in creating the glass, it burns cleaner and more efficiently than conventional gas logs. It will not melt, degrade, or emit toxic fumes. (This refers to the glass itself. You are still required to have your damper open when burning!) The special glass will last virtually a lifetime. There is no soot, no ash, and no smoke. With no popping embers to worry about, you can remove those screens and glass doors that hinder your view. Then watch the colors dance! (If you think this looks good in your fireplace, it is a show-stopper in a permanent outdoor fire pit or decorative feature in your patio landscape.)

Installation notes. The tumbling process used to create the glass ensures that there are no sharp edges to cut you and almost anyone can install it. Simply remove those old gas logs, and clean out your fireplace. (When you're cleaning, be careful of soot — it can and will ruin carpeting, wallpaper, paint, clothes, furniture, and anything else it comes into contact with.) Wipe the surfaces clean with a dry cloth to remove any dust.

Painting the inside of the fireplace makes for a very nice finish. Check your burner to make sure it is in proper working order (or buy one of our kits). And you're ready to fill. You could use the 1/2" "Starfire" color as the filler on the bottom and "Gold Reflective" as a topper...or "Black" with "Orange" as a topper...or 1/4" "Bronze" with "Bronze Reflective"...or "Dark Green" and "Cranberry"...the options are endless!

An average fireplace will take between 65 and 150 lbs. of glass. Using a volcanic rock and then sand as a filler can cut down on the amount of glass needed and give you the same look. However, if you want to change the color for a party or on holidays, an all-glass installation is best.

To calculate the amount of American Fireglass you will need for your fireplace: Add the front width (inches) and the back width (inches) together. Divide by 2. Then, multiply by depth of fireplace (inches). Then, multiply by the fill depth (3" is all you need — overfilling can bring damaging results). Divide that total by 231 and then multiply by 12 to get your total glass in pounds. (The 231 represents cubic inches per gallon, 12 represents pounds per gallon.) Or, just call us. We would be happy to put together a kit created just for you.

Kits

(All kits are priced with 1/4" nonreflective filler glass and are based on a standard fireplace that has a 30" front width x 24" back width x 18" depth.)

Kits come with a 24" U-style burner, flex-line connector, 76 lbs. of American Fireglass, and installation instructions.

That's One Hot Son of Hibachi®

This is not your grandfather's Hibachi® – not by a long shot! The Son of Hibachi is one of the most versatile charcoal barbecuing systems on the market. The ingenious "blast furnace" concept simulates the effect of a chimney – enabling you to be cooking in less than 10 minutes. With 170 sq. in. of cooking surface and a convertible roasting oven, this powerhouse barbecue can cook almost anything. Our combo pack includes the Grill-N-Fry – for grilling items like bacon, eggs, or a steak – and the official Snuff-Out-Pouch so you can put your Son of Hibachi away while it's still hot! This amazing pouch even has a pocket for your utensils. The optional battery-operated rotisserie can cook up to a 25-lb. turkey or roast. A counterweight is provided to deliver smooth rotation of your meal for even cooking. And talk about easy clean up! When you are finished cooking, this grill folds into a self-cleaning oven and self-extinguishing barbecue. On top of that, the Son of Hibachi saves the unused charcoal for later use.

The New Wave of Energy-Efficient Heat – Solar Comfort Infrared Heating System

Our infrared heating system is referred to as a zone furnace because it heats like a furnace, not a space heater.

This patented heating system has the ability to effectively heat up to 800 sq. ft. (average heat output is approx. 500 sq. ft.‡) using a combination of four 375-watt infrared industrial-strength heat lamps and its exclusive heat exchanger. Unlike the "look-a-like" products that are simply passing air over heat lamps and then blowing it back into the room, this zone furnace heats the air as it passes through its unique heat exchanger. The outcome: clean, comfortable, heated air gently flows into your living area. Unlike traditional space heaters, the infrared heating system is extremely efficient – using less electricity than a coffeemaker. There are no internal flames or fumes produced, making it the safest portable heating system you can find. And it will not remove humidity or dry your air. Its "lifetime" washable filter keeps your air clean, and the filter can be cleaned as needed. This extraordinary heating system is excellent for both supplementary and total heating. Safe for children, pets, plants, furniture and more. Children and pets can literally lean against and touch this heater without being burned (cats love to curl up on it). No combustion means no fumes. You can safely heat that cold upstairs room, woodshop, garage, greenhouse, boat, etc. Measures 18" H x 16" W x 24-1/2" L.

Infrared Heating System 5SN-C1500 $499.00

‡Many different values will determine the heat output in your living area, like windows, insulation, type of construction, etc. Average heat output is approx. 500 sq. ft.

The Realistic Look of a Wood Fire Without the Mess

Mahogany Jonathan

Attractive gel-fuel fireplaces can be put almost anywhere!

The warm, beautiful glow of a fireplace can be enjoyed in any room of your home with our gel-fuel fireplaces. They only take a short amount of time to assemble, require no chimney, and can be moved to any room of your home at any time!

Gel-fuel fireplaces burn only natural, 100% ecologically sound, alcohol gelled fuel. A gel-fuel fireplace will allow you to enjoy the relaxing feel of a real fire – without the mess and work of a wood-burning fireplace. Our fireplaces come with two 13-oz. cans of gel fuel. These fireplaces are NOT intended for use with anything other than the appropriate alcohol gel fuel.

Mantle cabinets are made entirely of Southern American Pine. A mesh screen is optional.

- Made in the USA
- OSHA and EPA approved – safer than burning a candle!
- Made from solid hardwood cabinetry with a 20-gauge steel insert
- Each can burns for two to three hours and can generate 3,000 BTUs of heat
- Fuel makes realistic crackling sound without emitting any odor
- Includes concrete, oak-log-stack display
- Comes with two cans of gel fuel
- Unlike vented fireplaces, this unit can be placed almost anywhere

The Jonathan is available in mahogany or oak and measures 47-1/2" W x 43" H x 13-1/2" D. The Heritage is available in white, oak, or mahogany and measures 42" W x 42" H x 14-1/2" D. The Corner Heritage is available in white, oak, or mahogany and measures 42" W x 42" H x 29" D.

Gelled Alcohol Fuel is a clean-burning, smokeless alcohol fuel that provides an attractive flame that is wickless, nontoxic, and easy to maintain. To extinguish, place the lid on top of the flame. When gel runs out, simply lift the empty can of gel fuel out and replace it with a new can! Each can of gel fuel provides up to three hours of strong, bright flame.

- No smell
- Made with pure alcohol, water, salt, and thickeners
- Produces the lowest carbon monoxide of any gel: 1.5 parts per million (the USA standard is 55 parts per million)
- No methanol or methyl isobutyl ketone, unlike other brands
- No soot
- Easy and safe to light – no flare up, slow start, and then 7" brilliant yellow flame after 30 seconds!
- No venting necessary – use indoors or out

Home Is Where the Hearth Is

The hearth has long been the center or “heart” of the home. The hearth is functional – providing warmth and a traditional place to cook (even if today that just means fixing smores). But the hearth can also be a thing of beauty – whether there’s a fire blazing or not. Add both beauty and functionality to your fireplace – while also protecting it – with our fireplace screens, wood holders, and tool sets. The screens feature tightly woven mesh to prevent sparks from flying onto your floor or carpet. The artistry and details that go into these high-quality hearth accessories will be appreciated and admired for years to come.

The Iron Gate Collection

A scroll design enhances this hand-crafted collection, made from forged wrought iron. A fine, burnished, black finish incorporates a transparent finish with a hand-crafted fabrication process. As a result, construction details may be visible under the burnished black finish. The finish is painstakingly designed to resemble a natural iron finish – with the long-lasting benefits of a protective coating. Multiple door options and custom sizing are available. Made in the USA, with a lifetime guarantee.

Natural Wrought-Iron Collection

Here's a simple design that is "just right" with a more-modern decorating style. You could say it's a "natural." With smooth lines and a traditional design, this collection sports a handsome, natural-iron finish. It is made of wrought iron for durability and lasting good looks. The spark-guard screen offers added protection from flying embers.

Three-Panel Screen	5US-1140	$177.90

Customer Satisfaction

Our customer-satisfaction policies are pretty straightforward. You can count them on one hand...

1. Our success is based on your satisfaction – in both the products you buy and with our company as a whole.
2. If you're not satisfied with your purchase – or if it is defective upon arrival – you may return it in its original condition for an exchange or a refund. The exception to this: special-order or custom-made items are non-cancelable and nonrefundable. (See "Return Policy" for the details.)
3. We don't use deceptive advertising gimmicks.
4. We don't have hidden handling, packing, or shipping fees.
5. We have an extensive inventory in our warehouse; however, some items are drop-shipped from a supplier. You will always be notified if there are any back-ordered items or any delays in shipping your order.

Guarantees

All items are guaranteed by the manufacturer. All items are guaranteed to be free from manufacturing defects when received.

Depending on the item and the manufacturer, the specific warranty periods vary. For specific warranty information on a given item, please call us toll-free (1.866.667.8454) or e-mail us (orderdesk@NorthlineExpress.com).

Your Privacy and Security

NorthlineExpress will never share any personal information you give us. We do not make your information available to any outside companies. We also won't send overly frequent catalogs or e-mail advertisements.

We do send out a monthly e-mail newsletter with specials and other helpful information. But we don't send this to you automatically. If you'd like to receive this, check the box next to your e-mail address on the order form – or select to receive this information during the online checkout process. (Our online checkout form makes it very easy for you to opt-out of this with a click of your mouse. It's entirely your choice.)

When you order through our website, you can be sure your credit card is secure. Our site has security measures in place to prevent the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control. The NorthlineExpress website conducts all order transactions via a secure server. Using your credit card on our secure server is guaranteed. In the highly unlikely event that your credit card is used fraudulently online with NorthlineExpress, and you must pay any amount because of the fraudulent use, you will be reimbursed fully.

Additional Shipping Information

Most products ship from our warehouse facilities located in Roscommon, Michigan. Others ship directly from the manufacturer. Most orders leave our warehouse within one to two business days. Custom orders and other specified products take longer. We have sophisticated software designed specifically for handling your order to ensure fast, accurate delivery.

We do not ship to P.O. boxes, APO, or FPO addresses.

Standard service is provided by UPS Ground. The time in transit is normally three to five business days. Standard service does not include common-carrier shipments; expedited shipments; or shipments to Alaska, Hawaii, US territories, or international shipments. In all of these cases, call us for shipping rates.

NOTE: Products beginning with "5FD-", "5EN-", and "5VE-" ship directly from the manufacturer and generally take about three to five additional days to process.

Other UPS Transit Times: There are other UPS shipping options available (at a greater expense, of course). Call us for the costs. These include:

- UPS 3 Day Select – three business days, plus the ship day, plus our processing time
- UPS 2nd Day Air – two business days, plus the ship day, plus our processing time
- UPS Next Day Air Saver – one business day after our ship day, plus our processing time; delivery by end of that day
- UPS Next Day Air – one business day after our ship day, plus our processing time; delivery by noon that day

UPS Guarantees: Services listed as guaranteed are backed by a money-back guarantee for transportation charges only. UPS guarantees the day of delivery for every UPS Ground package you ship to any address within the 48 contiguous states. The Service Guarantee does not apply to shipments that are delayed due to causes beyond UPS control.

The "UPS Guarantee" does not apply to UPS Ground shipments that are picked up or scheduled to be delivered between December 12 and December 25.

For more information, visit the UPS website (www.ups.com) or call our toll-free number.

Free Shipping: Certain items are excluded from our free-shipping offer due to the size or weight. Free-shipping items that are returned will have the actual cost of the outbound freight deducted from the refund.

More Information: See "Standard Shipping" on the order form (left) or visit our website (NorthlineExpress.com) for more details and pricing. You can call us, too!

Tracking Your Order

When you place an order through our website you will receive an e-mail confirmation that your order is in process. If you provide an e-mail address on your fax/mail-order form (left), we will also send a confirmation.

Return Policy

All items – except for custom-made and special-order products – can be returned within 30 days of receipt. All returned goods must be in new, sellable condition and in the original packaging.

Custom-made, special-order, and personalized products are not subject to cancellation and are not returnable.

IMPORTANT: Before returning any product, you must call us (1.866.NORTHLINE or 1.866.667.8454) or e-mail us (orderdesk@NorthlineExpress.com) for a return authorization number. Items returned without a return authorization number will be refused or subject to a restocking charge.

Customers are responsible for returning the item in the original packaging and in new condition. Please properly package and insure the item so a claim can be filed with the carrier if damage occurs during return shipping. Claims cannot be made on items not properly and securely packaged.

Goods are to be returned, freight prepaid, along with a copy of your invoice and reason for return.

A defective item may be exchanged during the first 30 days on most products; after 30 days, the manufacturer's warranty applies.

Any "free freight" or "free shipping" item that is returned will have the outbound freight charge deducted from the total return. Note: Many items have promotional (reduced) shipping charges, so the shipping cost on your order may not reflect the actual shipping cost.

The 30-day timeframe begins when you receive your order. Returns must be postmarked or shipped back to us no later than the 30th day from the date of receipt. Returns shipped beyond the 30-day timeframe will not be refunded and will be returned to the sender at their expense.

Returning Fireplace Enclosures: Stock fireplace enclosures can be returned; however, there is a 20% restocking charge. Please be sure to carefully repack the enclosure to prevent damage to the enclosure. Any enclosure returned that receives damage due to improper packaging may be subject to additional charges to bring the enclosure back to new condition.

Returning Fireplace Screens: All fireplace screens will be subject to a 10% restocking charge to cover repackaging. Please be sure to carefully repack the screen to prevent damage. Any screen returned that receives damage due to improper packaging may be subject to additional charges to bring the screen back to new condition.

Disclaimer

We make every effort to correctly portray the items and information contained in our catalogs, newsletters, and website. In the event of pricing errors, errors in descriptions, and informational content errors, we will attempt to correct the situation in a timely fashion once notified. We will not be held liable for pricing errors, and we reserve the right to cancel any order or refuse shipment at any time with written notice to the buyer.

More Ways To Shop Than Ever!

Visit our website, look through our catalog, or stop by our retail showroom in northern Michigan. We make it easy for you to shop our great selection of unique products for your home and for gifts.

When you're ready to order, call, fax, mail, or use our online shopping cart.

Just don't try to send your order psychically – we haven't fully developed our sixth sense yet. (Except when it comes to uncannily "knowing" what products you'd like us to offer!) However, if transmitting orders via controlled brainwaves is important to our customers, we're sure to explore that option in the future!

Welcome to NorthlineExpress!

Thank you so much for taking the time to consider our company's products and services. We believe in only offering products that we would use ourselves, at a fair price, and we guarantee them 100%.

Whether you've shopped with us before or not, we think you'll like our selection of items for the hearth and home. Coming into the holiday season, you're also probably thinking of people on your gift list. We have something for everyone – and for every budget. (For example, see our "Great Gift Ideas Under $25" on page 3. And there are more great ideas like those throughout this catalog.)

In fact, there are so many gift possibilities, it may be challenging to make up your mind (using your sixth sense or not). And if you don't want to use sophisticated decision-making processes (like eenie-meenie-minie-mo), then we'd like to suggest the greatest invention ever...the gift certificate.

Gift certificates. The perfect present!

Let them pick out exactly what they want. Gift certificates can be used toward the purchase of any product available at NorthlineExpress. And there is no expiration date on our gift certificates. (See page 64.)

Gift certificates are mailed to the shipping address (you can send the certificate to the recipient – or send it to yourself and give it to them directly). Instructions on redeeming the gift certificate are sent with the certificate to the recipient – along with a catalog of our products. Note: Gift certificates cannot be returned or redeemed for cash. (But who would want to do that?!)

Talk to Us

If you have any questions, aren't sure about something we've said in this catalog, or would like help in ordering, call us toll-free: 1.866.NORTHLINE (1.866.667.8454). If, for any reason, you are dissatisfied with our products or with our company, please contact our customer-satisfaction department at the same number. You are calling a friendly person in northern Michigan!

We're available weekdays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. (EST). You can also contact us by e-mail at orderdesk@NorthlineExpress.com.

Thanks again for your support!

Finally, a Way To Protect Your Children

Protect your children from the dual hazards of heat and fire from fireplaces and wood-burning stoves – as well as the dangerous corners and hard, rough surfaces associated with hearths. The HearthGate is the solution. The standard gate fits hearths 6' wide by 2' deep. Larger fireplaces and wood-burning stove areas may require additional sections. Five interlocking sections adjust in 10° increments and can be angled or set in a straight line as needed. Included in the five-piece basic set is a walk-through section that opens in either direction with a simple one-hand child-proof release. The HearthGate is constructed of strong tubular steel with a black, nontoxic, heat-resistant finish that is easy to maintain and blends with any decor. Measures 28" H.

Spark Guards Are Always on Duty

Protect your room from sparks coming straight out from your fire. The top section of screening is shaped like the curved section of an old-fashioned roll-top desk. The panels are not hinged, giving you maximum protection from sparks. The entire spark guard is rigid. To tend a fire, handles on the spark guard allow the rigid unit to be picked up and moved away from the fire. Our spark guards are made with steel rods welded to an extra-heavy kick plate to provide rigid support. Our mesh is woven to ensure no jagged edges are exposed. The handles are bolted to the frame – not the mesh – for years of maximum protection. We also have sizing available for Rumford fireplaces, and we offer custom sizing (please call for details). Made in the USA.

Wood Burning at Its Finest

What do you do with your existing inefficient masonry fireplace? Retrofit an efficient Napoleon wood-burning insert. Achieve clean-burning fires radiating luxurious heat with a minimal amount of work or wood – saving precious time and money.

The steel Napoleon wood-burning insert is designed to be the perfect fit. This stylish insert will bring you years of satisfaction and, of course, the beauty of a natural, roaring fire. Using cutting-edge technology, Napoleon has developed a system that creates a clean burn without the use of a catalytic combustor. The “dual vortex” action is created when primary air enters through the bottom air control and up through a preheating air-wash chamber. It is then forced down by secondary air from the horizontal jet tubes located on the inside ceiling of the insert. The combination of air-washing and proper air temperature result in fewer emissions and an extremely clean viewing glass. The Napoleon 1101 insert not only meets but exceeds EPA requirements for allowed emissions per hour and is approved for both masonry and pre-manufactured fireplaces. For maximum efficiency, a complete chimney reline is required. Please check your local codes. The choice of either black or gold doors gives you the option to choose the style that best fits your home. This item ships by common carrier.† You must be present to accept delivery.

Carrier Bag Rack

Often copied, but never matched in quality! This rack features a bag to carry wood that also keeps chips and dirt off your floor. A convenient pocket in the bag carries kindling. The 18-oz. cotton duck bag is an exclusive. The strength of these American-made products begins with the materials used, such as high-carbon steel. The signature hammered steel starts with hot-rolled steel and is finished to a rich, distressed patina. A high-density, scratch-resistant coating preserves the natural beauty. This product is handmade by skilled craftspeople on traditional French metal-forming equipment at a factory in Port Hadlock, Washington. The quality is inspected after every step of the manufacturing process. Workers carefully hand-wrap each piece to ensure you receive the product in pristine condition. You can see and feel the quality in this product. Made in the USA. Measures 24-1/2" L x 20-1/2" W x 21" H.

Transform Less Wood into More Heat

Outside, the howling winds blow around trees and up and down the sloping landscape. Inside, the stove provides a safe haven where friends and family can gather to share stories of rugged winter weather from days gone by. And, like the stories, the wood stoves have improved over the years. Perhaps it is time to consider replacing yours.

This Napoleon wood-burning stove transforms less wood into more heat. The steel stove is brick-lined for extra heat conduction, and an optional ash pan is available for easier ash disposal. The burn control lever is mounted in the front of the fireplace – just below the door. This lever allows you to easily regulate the primary and secondary air and establish a perfect air mixture for a clean burn. High temperatures and an effective air-wash system combine to keep your viewing glass clean. An optional variable-speed blower is also available to maximize heat output. Ceramic glass ensures safety and efficiency by allowing heat to transfer through the glass into your living area.

This unit utilizes 6" chimney components to help with efficiency and installation costs. Call us for more details. A standard refractory brick-lined firebox, rear heat shield, and ash pan are just a few of its amazing features. This item ships by common carrier.† You must be present to accept delivery.

The Beauty and the Heat

This is no fairy tale. The Napoleon NZ-26 Prestige fireplace offers the beauty of a fireplace and the heat of a wood stove. It uses a high-tech air-control system – reducing hydrocarbons, tars, and smoke in exhaust gases while eliminating the use of a catalytic combustor. The air-control chamber eliminates the sight and smell of smoke caused from negative-pressure problems. A stainless-steel exhaust flow prohibiter delays the combustion process, while a full brick-patterned refractory liner retains heat for maximum efficiency. Four stainless-steel secondary air tubes create more air to generate more heat. Convenient and elegant, the stainless-steel log retainer and primary “bottom air feed” assists in cold start-up and in “recharging” a small, dying fire. This unit is air-wash insulated with ceramic fiber, then protected with a stainless-steel cover plate to eliminate deterioration and ensure complete combustion. The beautiful arch door – with easy-to-operate handle and ceramic glass – offers a large viewing area. Cast-iron grate has self-closing ash dump. King-sized functional ash pan with convenient handles and unique tri-fold lid lets you dispose of ashes expediently and safely. Single-lever combustion control allows for proper burn-rate regulation. For maximum efficiency, a complete chimney reline is required. Please check your local codes. Base unit includes: firebrick-lined firebox, ceramic PHAZER® baffle, ash pan with tri-fold lid, variable-speed switch, thermo disc for blower kit, and black door and black louvers (not shown). Optional 24k-gold-plated doors and louvers available (shown). This item ships by common carrier.† You must be present to accept delivery.

Deluxe Power Bellows

The Power Bellows is an indispensable tool for owners of wood fireplaces and stoves.

More practical than manual bellows – and so much cheaper. Serious wood-burners say that the Power Bellows is a tool they wouldn't live without! The Power Bellows makes starting a fire simple. Just point the gentle air stream to build your blaze quickly. This saves the bother of using wads of paper and other primitive methods. The Power Bellows is also safer to use. When you need to revive a dying fire, keep your hands and face away from hot surfaces by using the Power Bellows. The long, metal-tipped tube directs the current of air to where you want it. Sleek and compact, it has a genuine leather thong for hanging conveniently alongside your fireplace tool set. Uses two D batteries (not included). Great for fireplaces, charcoal grills, and campfires, too!

These Bellows Are a Work of Art

Designed by one of the most creative men in the fireplace business – Johnny Beard – our alligator print bellows has a very unique look. Creating new ideas for the last 35 years, he is a skilled woodworker and metal designer. These are America's finest bellows and are built to last. This beautiful, artistic, all-handcrafted design by Beard is one of a kind. Real leather is pressed for the rich look of alligator skin. Carved out of oak wood with a dark oak stain. Using authentic cowhide leather for the bellows, this functional piece of art has little extra touches here and there, like a unique design on the nozzle.

Measures 21" L x 8" W x 2" D.

There is an easier way!

Come out of the Stone Age with nature's easiest fire starter.

Fatwood makes starting your fire easy.

It's great for fireplaces, barbecues, wood stoves, and campfires.

Here's something that doesn't mind being called "fat"! While fatwood is usually picked last for dodgeball, it's the first choice for starting fires. But fatwood is no juvenile delinquent. Not at all!

When it's time to start a fire, you'll quickly discover that fatwood is your new best friend. Fatwood comes from the very heart of the pine tree, where the wood is rich in sap or resin. These sticks give off a pleasant pine aroma and will make starting your fire a snap! Two sticks – that's all it takes.

So stop banging two rocks together, step out of the Stone Age ("dodge-rock" really wasn't a fun game), and discover nature's best kindling. It's natural, clean, and quick. Plus, fatwood also looks great displayed on your hearth in a fatwood caddy or holder. And don't forget the handy fatwood mini-grate (below).

8-lb. Burlap Bag 5MM-FWB-08 $13.90
Contains enough sticks to start approximately 80 fires.

Bulk Fatwood

Comes in a plain box.

The Gratest Fatwood Mini-Grate

Place it under your regular fireplace grate with a few fatwood sticks and light. The mini-grate measures 8-1/2" W x 5-1/2" D x 2" H.

5UC-1812 $9.90

Cast-Iron Ceramic Fire Starter

The ceramic fire starter is a popular way to get your fire started fast. Just squirt some lighter fluid into the ceramic fire starter, place it under your fireplace grate, and light it. Easily starts even wet wood. The ceramic stone holds the fluid so the burn time is extended.

Housed in a cast-iron body, the ceramic fire starter will last for years. Not for use in an airtight wood stove. Measures 10-1/2" L x 4" W x 1-1/2" H.

We Have Beautiful Racks. They Are Delightfully Functional, Too.

Our racks provide a beautiful, efficient alternative to built-in fixtures. All bases are made with a signature hammered-steel finish. The Eastern Maple for our butcher blocks is hand-selected from the highest-quality stock. Work surfaces are 36" off the floor, the optimum working height. Grid-work shelving provides rugged, easy-to-see storage.

Plant It Where You Want It

We discovered many of our customers were using our cookware stands to hold plants, so we designed two different stands just for that purpose. The shelves are generously spaced to show off your favorite foliage. Cold-riveted and fully assembled. Available with three and four tiers.

Three-Tier Rack
Measures: 17-1/2" W x 15" D x 33-1/2" H

Four-Tier Rack (shown)
Measures: 17-1/2" W x 15" D x 53-1/2" H
7EN-PS4 $220.00

Inspiration Comes in Many Forms

Inspired by an antique French baker's rack, these stands beautifully display your finest cookware. The tripod legs taper upward, lending a gentle grace and allowing you to store large pots on the bottom, smaller ones up on top. Cold-riveted for long life and stability, the rack comes fully assembled. Display your finest cookware (or plants) on our graceful, tiered stands. Made from hammered steel, they feature three-edge platforms for your items to rest upon and a slight twist to each end for a little more pizzazz.

Diamond Wine Rack

Graceful and freestanding, our diamond-shaped wine rack holds bottles at the proper angle to keep corks moist and wine perfectly preserved. Soft pads protect any surface. Display this simple – yet fanciful – wine storage rack anywhere.

It's compact enough to fit in small spaces without compromising necessary bottle storage capacity. Made of hammered steel and stores up to nine bottles. Measures 18" W x 10" D x 19" H.
7EN-WSR2 $112.00

Don't Cramp Your Entertaining Style

Frustrated over not having enough counter space for your wine bottles and glasses? Here's a simple, elegant solution. It easily fits into any open counter space without cramping your entertaining style. It's also easy to relocate to your patio or deck – so no more running back and forth to the kitchen! Does not include the glasses or bottles of wine.

Small rack holds four glasses and eight bottles of wine. Large rack holds eight glasses and eight bottles of wine.
Small Wine & Glass Rack Measures: 14" W x 8-1/4" D x 17-1/4" H

Charming Elegant Functional

Charming and Elegant

Watering cans can serve many purposes. Use them as a vase, decorative accent, or even to water your house plants (imagine!). Our dainty copper watering can is a great option for all of these. Handmade in copper with a neatly hammered pattern, this can is lovely both to look at and to hold. It's all about the dimples (Redford and Travolta always had great success with them). For indoor use only. Measures 7-1/2" H x 6-1/2" Dia. Holds 3 pints.

5MM-WC-06 $33.90

Hammered Copper

Add a little style to your garden accessories. This high-gloss copper watering can is great – whether watering your flowers or using it for decoration. Finish is polished copper with a soft hammered texture and brass accents. Measures 10-3/4" H. Holds 1 gallon.

5MM-VWC-05 $69.90

Why Change a Good Thing?

Our 18th century replica watering cans are unique. This traditional design is perfect for decorating and watering. The copper can has handles at the top and side for easy use. Spout is removable. Measures 15" H x 23" L. Holds 1-1/2 gallons.

5MM-WC-14 $84.90

Form and Function

Our clever design keeps water from overflowing and ruining your furniture. The long spout lets you put the water into the soil. Made from solid brass with an antique finish. Measures 12" Square x 16" H.

5MM-WC-02 $30.00

It's Not Easy Being Green

Luckily, our frog has a charcoal gray finish that resembles natural stone. He's easy to love! Frogs are known for bringing good luck, so adding this little leaper to your garden just might bring some!

Our garden frog is made from cast aluminum, so he's guaranteed to not keep you awake with his ribbiting. He's so quiet, in fact, that he can be a fun accent inside your home, too! Measures 4-1/2" H x 7-1/2" L.

5MM-FRG-01 $43.00

Personality Abounds in the Garden

Our whimsical garden frogs add personality to any garden. These animated garden guests are anchored to springs that sway at the slightest breeze, creating a garden dance that will keep you entertained. Made of hand-painted steel, each garden frog measures approximately 6" H and sits atop a 24" stake. Sold as a set of five.

5MM-FS-01 $40.00

Just Hanging out with Chimp and Cat Chains

Our chimp chain and cat links add a special dimension to those hanging plants. Both made of solid brass, the chimps have a verdigris finish, and the cats have a permanent black finish. Use separately or together for a great effect. Each chimp or cat measures 5" in length. Sold in sets of three. Ceiling hook not included.

The Great Blue Heron

Great Blue Heron love fish – it's a fact! This water bird is the perfect accent beside your pond or water feature, by your dock or swimming pool, or anywhere in your garden, patio, or sunroom. This one is happy inside or out. And if you happen to have fish, they will be safe from this heron. He's willing to just watch.

This stately bird is the most widespread heron in North America and has a serious fan base. Heron groupies love the Great Blue's elegance, soft coloring, grace, and delicate lines.

He also adds an Asian influence to Japanese gardens. A heron can be seen as a good omen. In Japan and China, herons are known as "friends of crows" and are sometimes pictured with the crow to depict the yin-yang symbol.

Wildlife statues are always great choices when it comes to lawn and garden ornamentation. This near-life-size replica is beautifully detailed from beak to claw.

Our stately Great Blue Heron is made from cast aluminum with a blue/gray verdigris finish. As a bonus, our version is guaranteed not to migrate. Comes complete with anchor pins to keep your heron from flying away. Measures 31-1/2" H.

They'll Eat You out of (Gingerbread) House and Home

If you could wrap together everything that represents fairytale, fantasy, and downright childhood wishes, you would get a gingerbread house. Honestly, who can't delight in a roof made of peppermints, shutters built from licorice whips, pathways lined with gumdrops, and animal crackers running amuck through sugary snowdrifts? How wonderful to live in such a land of candied cookie houses – where, most certainly, there cannot be a care in the world.

Gingerbread houses have a long tradition – starting first with gingerbread itself. In the Middle Ages, gingerbread – a cake sweetened with molasses and flavored with gingerroot – was baked in Europe. Later, gingerbread – especially in fun shapes – was popular at festivals.

The gingerbread man was one such shape. But he had an important purpose in his short cookie life. Young maidens who fancied catching a man of their own would gobble the cookie version for good luck and good hunting.

But how did gingerbread go from man-shape to house? Do you remember the witch's house in the fairytale of Hansel and Gretel? It was made of sweets – the perfect house to attract children. Germans recreated this tasty house – without the witch to pop the children into the oven. (At least not over a nibble or two.)

This year, draw up the blueprints for your own gingerbread house (no construction loan needed). Decades from now, your children or grandchildren will remember the time your family put together a gingerbread house. (Otherwise, they could grow up being jealous of other children and bitter over their missed gingerbread experiences! Perhaps that misguided witch just needed a little more gingerbread in her own childhood.)

What's the worst thing that could happen? If it turns out that your architectural skills are not the greatest (maybe the north wall keeps falling down) – well, just eat it!

Our cast-iron gingerbread molds have a non-stick coating to help your creations come out perfect and to ensure easy cleanup. Each pan comes complete with recipes and instructions for building your own gingerbread house.

Icing is your friend. It is the glue that holds the house together – the veritable spackle and mortar of this construction zone. When in doubt, it's icing to the rescue!

Gingerbread House

- |                          |                          |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1/2 cup shortening       | 3 cups all-purpose flour |
| 1/2 cup granulated sugar | 1 t. ground ginger       |
| 1/2 cup dark molasses    | 1 t. ground cinnamon     |
| 2 T. cold water          | 1/2 t. salt              |

Preheat oven to 350°F. Brush the mold with oil or butter. In a mixing bowl, cream together shortening, sugar, molasses, and water. Sift together flour, spices, and salt. Add dry ingredients to shortening mixture and mix well. Dough will be stiff. Chill at least one hour. Press dough into greased gingerbread pan. Be sure to press firmly. Bake at 350°F for 25 minutes. Let cool in mold for 10 minutes. Carefully remove each piece of gingerbread to cooling rack, flat side down. Repeat to create the other side of your house. It is better to bake gingerbread a day ahead of assembling to allow it to stiffen. Assemble and decorate.

Royal Icing – Used Like “Glue”

- 3 egg whites at room temperature
3/4 t. cream of tartar
1 lb. confectioners' sugar, sifted
- Combine in mixing bowl and mix on high speed for 7 to 10 minutes. Beat until very stiff – you cannot over-beat. Store covered at room temperature. This mixture is for a sweet icing that will be used like glue to hold the house together and to decorate. It dries quickly into a hard candy consistency.

Tip: Use a cake decorating kit, which can be purchased at many local stores, to build and decorate your house or chateau.

Heat a Room or Two

The Fireplace Heater™ was developed to dramatically increase convection heat (hot air) coming from your fireplace. The unique design of this grate heater superheats the air within the exchanger tubes to more than 500°F and can produce 50,000+ BTUs of heat – enough to heat a room or two. Easy to install – simply assemble the blower on the tubes, seal it with the supplied silicone sealer, set it into your fireplace, then plug it in and build a fire. The heavy tubing is designed for long life and still works during power outages by convecting heat naturally through the tubing and into your home.

Cover the Whole Stack with Heavy-Duty Log Racks and Covers

Our heavy-duty log racks will save you time and money. Firewood that is left on the ground or uncovered will rot, attract bugs and rodents, and create an eyesore. The WoodEze™ log racks will solve all of these problems. By getting your firewood off the ground, you allow air to circulate and cure the wood for burning. Cured firewood burns more completely and is better for your chimney. Made of black canvas, the cover keeps the rain and snow out, yet lets the air circulate so your wood is ready to burn at a moment's notice. The 36" log rack holds an eighth of a cord of firewood. The 144" log rack holds more than three-quarters of a cord and has a center support. Bolts together in just minutes.
