

The Tabor Family

Building on Faith 2011

This family of five share a small one bedroom apartment. Ephrem and Lubaba have rented for several years; they cannot afford to upgrade to a larger unit. "We are extremely overcrowded and need a place with more bedrooms and a backyard where our kids can play outside. Our dream for our family is that the children grow up in a safe, quiet home in a good community and go to a good school. With our income, Habitat for Humanity is the only affordable way for us to provide our children with a safe and stable home. We like that Habitat is an interest free non-profit program and that we will work together with sponsors, volunteers and other Habitat families to build our home."

and sons Natnael, age 10, and Kirubel, 4 months, and daughter Blen, 21 months (not pictured).

Mr. Tabor has worked for Hertz auto rental as a vehicle service attendant for five years.

The Tabor Family, Trinity Habitat for Humanity, along with area sponsors and volunteers will build in partnership during Building on Faith 2011.
